Travelling in East Africa

Mr. Butler

This telegram in the original ran "with effect it is desirable etc." I think we may certainly assume that it refers to the Duke of Cornwall's journey.

As I passed by a kiosk the "Daily News" poster caught my eye and the announcement known to me was made about the attached extract.

? telegraph that announcement may now be made & register all the papers public.

Major Murray. Completion of H.R.H.'s household visit to to see what are H.R.H.'s wishes

26.11.11

Major Murray has just telephoned that the visit is absolutely private & unofficial. The Duke wishes the Queen to be so informed. Any Press representation is to be held in secret thing.

11 Sept

I suppose that we cannot suggest to H.R.H. that he & the Queen might travel as the Earl & Countess of Sussex in making an official visit in 27.11.11

Mr. Fiddes

Inform the Governor accordingly?

This was a notice of the forthcoming visit to the Times this morning.

This went to Earl
