Mr Traill is a pleasant enough young officer.

[I made a private note that he was a little bit of the 'Alsy' type] his report from the Governor in the Confidential reports of the present year is quite good. If, however, he is thinking of so considerable promotion as that he mentions on his form, I am afraid that very little

S.	District Commissioner	April 1 1903	Present date

Salary of present Office. † } £400.

Average of fees, if any, for the last 3 years } -

Whether a house or lodging is provided, or an allowance in lieu thereof } House & furniture provided.

Any other circumstances affecting the value of the appointment ‡ } Travelling allowance & free passage

PROMOTION DESIRED §

As appointments in the Mediterranean or the West Indies.
£500.

* Acting appointments are not to be entered here, but may be mentioned on the next page.

† If the officer holds more than one office, full particulars of each must be given.

‡ If private practice is allowed, the estimated value should be stated.

§ The value of a Colonial appointment depends upon so many circumstances besides the salary that the Secretary of State often cannot judge what would be acceptable to an officer. Applicants for promotion should therefore, in their own interests, state as precisely as possible what they desire, either specifying certain appointments, or at least mentioning the Colonies to which they would or might not be willing to go, and the amount of salary which they think that they may reasonably expect.
