GOVERNMENT HOUSE,

Nairobi,

January 20th 1910.

EAST AFRICA PROTECTORATE.

No. 42.

My Lord,

I regret to report that Mr. Saxton, Workshop Foreman in the Public Works Department, has been attacked by a disease which the medical officers have little doubt is leprosy. The malady appears to have been contracted in Abyssinia and to have been due in all probability to a wound in his hand sustained in the course of his duties. This man subsequently have become infected in some way at present not clearly understood.

2. The view of the general dread of this disease and the widespread fear of contagion, etc. I understand entirely justified by the highest authorities

but

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE

SIR EARL OF CREWE, K. G.,

Principal Secretary of State

for the Colonies,

DOWNING STREET, LONDON, S. W.

but notwithstanding almost universal prevalence, it would have been impossible to induce any line of steamer to take Mr. Sarter as a passenger and I have accordingly found it necessary to make the following arrangements which I trust will meet with Your Lordship's approval.

3. I have instructed the Chief Conservator of Forests to provide him with light duties as a Forest Guard in an isolated station in the Bham district, where the Department has a house at present unoccupied and apparently not required for any other purpose. He is not of course a qualified man and his employment in this capacity must be looked upon as an act of compassion. I propose to make him a monthly allowance of £10 on which I think he will be able to live. He will also be provided with tools and seeds so that he can grow crops and help to support himself in that way. The Forest Department has no funds for this expenditure, and I would ask sanction to meet it, as well as any incidental expenses in connection with Mr. Sarter's transport to from savings as far as the current year is concerned; I propose that for 1910-11 it should come under the heading of pensions and if Your Lordship approves I will insert provision for the sum of £150/- under that heading.

4. Mr. Saxton will be accompanied by his wife and adopted child.

5. The distressing circumstances of the case and the extreme urgency of the matter must be my excuse for authorizing the necessary expenditure without previously obtaining Your Lordship's sanction. Mr. Saxton has however been informed that until it has been given the arrangements made must be regarded as purely provisional.

I have the honour to be,

Your Lordship's humble,

obedient servant,

W. J. Fox
Secretary.
