SALE OF BUSH CATTLE

The expenditure assented to was not intended to exhaust the entire proceeds of the sale of the cattle but the Irrigation Scheme for the natives will account for a portion of the balance. There need not be any apprehension as to the expenditure of the whole sum for the benefit of the natives.

It may be that Lord Curzon will want the further report, which the Govt will be doubt furnished in due course?

No. 326

My Lord,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of Your Lordship's despatch No. 223 of the 22nd of April.

2. The expenditure to which Your Lordship has assented was not intended to exhaust the entire proceeds of the sale of cattle, though doubtless, as Your Lordship observes, the Irrigation Scheme for the natives will account for a portion of the balance.

3. Further developments in this direction will doubtless recommend themselves as time goes on, additional roads will require to be constructed, and agricultural expansion will demand an increased distribution of seeds. Your Lordship need not, I think, be apprehensive that we shall fail to discover means of spending the whole sum available for the benefit of the natives.

4. It must be remembered that the proceeds of the sale of the stock will not be received in their entirety.

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE

THE EARL OF CREWE, K.G.,

SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES,

LONDON, S.W.

entirety just at present. A number of the cattle were sold to European settlers on the instalment system and in many cases we have had to allow an extension of the time for payment owing to the depressed financial situation existing until quite recently.

I have the honour to be
Your Lordship's humble, obedient servant,

GOVERNOR.
