Mr. Read ^{Minister}
In their letter of 1958 (which I do not know what is said) the Treasury ask for a report as to how far the various districts in the U.A.P. are self-sufficient - referring to the view expressed by Her on 19/2/58 that the districts both in Uganda & the U.A.P. should be self-sufficient. He found in the enquiry of this in the U.A.P.

It appears that the total receipts of the year from municipal taxation are £ 3235 & the total expenditure by the Govt. on the municipalities is £ 4809 which does not cover every service except be considered the matter over the small towns by far more useful than the first & yet nothing put on any particular which seems after a general

Incidentally in the papers we get statistics of the European population with 380 (if of whom are offhand) at Nauvoo & 200 at Montrose more apparently than any other town.

One must admit that in proportion to their numbers the two have an incredible amount of noise.
