Com: of the Home Customs service.
By arrangement between the Commissioners of Customs and the F.O., they serve in the first instance, secondly from the Home service
for one year's service
in East Africa on the understanding that, if
at the end of that time they desired to remain in the Protectorate service,
then appl: should
become permanent and reasonable, but that if not, they should be granted a free
passage home and
two months' leave of absence from the date of leaving
East Africa before

refer resorting to
their former appl:
2. Of the two officers 217
selected, one has elected to return to the home service. The
W. O. Mitchell
other, has represented
that one year's service, spent entirely at one
station, has not been sufficient to enable him to form an opinion on the
decision on the subject, and he has accordingly
been requested that he may be re-recorded
for a further period of two years. The
Com: of the Protectorate considers that Mr.
Mitchell's application
is not unreasonable,
and the Board
and the F.O.
