Reemployment in E.A.P

Apply for preferably in Treasury

(Minutes)

Mr. Harris. There is nothing in the Treasury at present. There are some vacancies for an E.A.P. but before considering Mr. Ellet for further employment. I think that it will be well to have a report from the local authorities as to the manner in which he has behaved in duties.

Sir.

I have the honour to inform you that I am desirous of being re-appointed to serve in the East African Protectorate. You will doubtless remember the circumstances of my resignation a few months ago. I deeply regret that I did not avail myself of your kind offer to return to East Africa a short time ago, but my wife was then seriously ill and I could not leave her.

She is now completely recovered, and I am most anxious to return to a country in which I take such a deep interest.

I have of course lost my seniority as assistant Collector and for this reason I venture to ask that if possible I may be appointed to "The Treasury Department", as I have had nine years Banking experience in England. I have, I believe, a good record for my work as assistant Collector both at

Rabai and Machakos, and would do my utmost in any post to which you might see fit to appoint me.

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your most obedient

humble servant
