Security of office

Amounts for which various officers liable to account had been settled but report received of pressing security matters around of the office for completion

Mr. Read I expect this matter will have to stand over till the reference to the Circular of 14/8/07 has been received & decided whether there is no hurry

By the way there seems to be another important mistake in the 6th para of the Circular. Mr. Chinn in his minute suggested that enquiry should be made as to defalcations made good by your letters. The next misrecd as Collector, & the uncollected in the draft by Mr. Starn to financial officer which seems least serious. It was to me that what we want to know is the amount of the defalcations of the officer & how far they were made good by your letters, & if unable to do so, what is remaining, regular, &c.
