Lord Grenville's Land Grants

My dear Sir I have been looking for some where Grenville has and has his wife named 21 106 also which is to get whether he holds other land in names of other persons except as to various other locations will state in my return to Grenville

The Controller

This transfer began with the letter from Lord Grenville in which he confirmed of the delay in transferring to him 5,000 acres of land in Devon

The Comr stated that he was in favour of the transfer, but that it was necessary to refer the matter to us as Lord Grenville already holds more than 10,000 acres of the P & P so he had doubt whether such was to be can not take allowed without refer to him

It now appears that Lord Hardship already holds 21,000 acres in his own & his wife's name. The Crown has not know how much he holds acres in the name of others.

It is thought his management is affair as the holder of 5000 acres and that the rumour is true that Lord Hardship of Faucon are offering in the name of 20 "domains" for 200,000 acres on the Tona. In the interim stances I should suggest that Lord Hardship be told that the P.P. cannot sanction the transfer until he is better informed as to the total holdings of Lord Hardship & applications for land, whether in his own name or those of others. (His name is not trying to turn stiff bargains with Mr. Goldmann & others who really apply for large areas, of the people can get equally large areas on more favorable terms by bargaining.
