Furniture in Government House

Mr. Crossin's letter of 11th May proposes to take £200 from the Protector's general furniture vote, and the balance from general savings to be allocated later. Govt. House will be finished in January.

If the same proposed by the Govt is approved I apply to the Comd. letter of 18550 & state that I will not be necessary to limit the weight of the packages to 200 lbs. I see my minute marked A on that paper - such a reduction from heavy blooded what reduction will be possible in the cost of packing under these circumstances.
