ANOTHER NAVAL WIN

Hard-fought Match at Mombasa.

A ONE GOAL SCORE

[From our own correspondents.] Mombasa, July 25.—The third soccer match between "A" ("Chickens") and "B" ("Mombasa") took place on Saturday last, and was a wonderful one. The visitors had made a goal in the first half, but the home team had made one in the second half. The match was a very close one, and the home team was victorious by a one goal score.

Poultry Notes.

WARNING AND PREPARING BIRDS FOR SHOW.

The cleaning of colored birds is a very simple matter and should be done in a clean place. The legs and feet require the most attention. They should be washed in a little warm water and then dried. The feet should be rubbed with a little oil to keep them soft. The wings should be washed with a little warm water and then dried. The body should be washed with a little warm water and then dried. The head should be washed with a little warm water and then dried. The tail should be washed with a little warm water and then dried.

ELVED.

The bird is now shown in a clean bath, which has been cleaned, to show the same beauty as the white clothes. The water used to be poured through and evenly. The bird is now shown in a clean bath, which has been cleaned, to show the same beauty as the white clothes. The water used to be poured through and evenly.

WILD CREAM.

Birds with white legs, such as Martins, should have the legs washed with cold cream. The cream should be applied to the legs and feet. The cream should be applied to the legs and feet. The cream should be applied to the legs and feet.

TO WHAT WHITE BIRDS.

This is not too early to say, but has not done so before, and the result is that the birds are not so clean as they should be. The birds are not so clean as they should be. The birds are not so clean as they should be.

METHOD OF WASHING.

Prepared those birds of the second order and the third order. The first thing to do is to clean the legs and feet. Then the bird is washed in a little warm water. The bird is washed in a little warm water. The bird is washed in a little warm water.
