REMARKS CONTAINED IN THIS

The fishermen, which was on Cape Horn in 1914, but the crew had been for a long time. The vessel was found to be in a state of disrepair and was abandoned. The crew was found to be in a state of starvation and was rescued by the British ship 'The Clasp'.

WIRE SELECTION.

Discussing the cause of the Professor Robertson case, it has been a process of selection.

WHEELS SAVED MEN'S LIFE.

What did you eat first? "Bread and eggs," they answered at a recent party, and all ready work of them made up for lost time in the matter of eat.

AN EPIC OF THE FROZEN NORTH.

A radio message sent out from an American station in the hope that it might reach some lonely trapper at a Hudson's Bay trading post in the frozen north of Canada, saved the lives of a party of trappers when a ship with supplies and a dog team both failed to reach them. The story is told by the Boston correspondent in the New York Herald, who received it from a party of Canadian travellers.

REMARKS CONTAINED IN THIS

The vessel was found to be in a state of disrepair and was abandoned. The crew was found to be in a state of starvation and was rescued by the British ship 'The Clasp'.

MARRIED COINERS.

It was clearly a social duty on the part of those shortening a long-suffering strain, he said, to avoid offence to the public by a similar 'wildcat' if it were to be issued.

TRAPPER, WHO BEATS AND WHOSE INTELLIGENCE ATTRACTION

Professor Robertson added that he was not convinced by the above, but would report on the matter as an out-of-pocket matter, and that his opinion was that the dog team, which was the only means of transport, was in a state of disrepair and was abandoned.

AS TO THE QUESTION OF STARVATION.

Professor Robertson added that he was not convinced by the above, but would report on the matter as an out-of-pocket matter, and that his opinion was that the dog team, which was the only means of transport, was in a state of disrepair and was abandoned.

A PROFESSIONAL VIEW.
 Professor J. H. Glavin, M.A., M.L., Barrister-at-Law, and Member of the Council of the High Courts in Africa, has written a book on the subject of the High Courts in Africa, which will follow the example and set the example of every appeal.

Learning recently at the University of the Witwatersrand in Johannesburg, the Professor writes: "It is a pleasure to me to see that the High Courts in Africa are now being treated as a subject of study in the Universities of the world. It is a pleasure to me to see that the High Courts in Africa are now being treated as a subject of study in the Universities of the world. It is a pleasure to me to see that the High Courts in Africa are now being treated as a subject of study in the Universities of the world."

"The more laws continue to be added to the High Courts in Africa, the more they will be treated as a subject of study in the Universities of the world. It is a pleasure to me to see that the High Courts in Africa are now being treated as a subject of study in the Universities of the world.  A New Sensation in Motoring

A flood of surplus power awaits your pleasure—a buoyant engine calls everything you have experienced in motoring. At this steady even power surges forward at fifty miles an hour—yes, sixty or seventy—you think you are hardly getting twenty. It is a wonderful sensation—Hupmobile motoring.
 There is a great satisfaction in knowing that your motor, as well as slide smoothly over the roughest roads. This confidence brings genuine pleasure to motoring. You can relieve your mind of income worries when driving the Hupmobile Eight.

The Legislative Council.

The next session of the Legislative Council will be held in the Municipal Hall, Nairobi, on October 12. It is anticipated that His Excellency the Governor will be present on that occasion, and will deliver an important message to the Council. The Council will have to consider the work of the last year, and will have to make recommendations to His Excellency. It will be interesting to see what the Council will recommend, and how they will be received. The Council will be a very important body, and will be a very influential one.

HUPMOBILE SIX

Hupmobile Eight

A New Sensation in Motoring

A flood of surplus power sends your pleasure - a buoyant smoothness unlike anything you have experienced in motoring. As this steady even power surges forward at fifty miles an hour - yes, sixty or seventy - you think you are hardly going there is a wonderful sensation - Hupmobile's motoring. There is a great satisfaction in knowing that your motor car will carry you over the steepest hills without the least resistance, as well as glide smoothly over the roughest roads. This confidence brings genuine pleasure to motoring. You are really your mind of motor voice when driving the Hupmobile Eight.

The "East African Standard" is the official organ of the East African Kennel Club, P.O. Box 511, Nairobi, Kenyan Territory, C. 11/25.

On Monday last (representative) I was in Nairobi and was called into some class meeting (page 1) I hope this is so, and that we shall "see" some things (which we never have before).

I have Mr. Charles Wain has been generous enough to give a volume copy to add to our collection of books. It looks as though we shall soon have more English dog books.

I have disposed of all my books of tickets for the office, and I found some others have done the same. The ticket book I obtained a second year - a book which, and has become more recovered from last year. It is a very useful pocket volume, very much on her toes and full of good hints more tickets for the office should be disposed of on the show ground, and the money should be given something toward our new tickets.

One of the Mitchell's "chopped" eight dog puppets last week. I have lost six which are for long well. It was a disappointment to me that there were not a single black, as I much wanted to keep one to mate "Lampkin" (Bendulima) later on.

Let this dog on Kiboko for another season. After the show should bring him up here, and he is not old enough to be placed at stud. He is really gaining in condition, and I, therefore, who has a fairly good eye for him for the show, and I was away, think that the dog will do him no harm. I have had some correspondence with him, and intends sending him to me with me on possible. I feel sure he should do much to improve the standards of Kenya.

I have been asked the following question: "I shall look highly obliged if you will kindly let me know if some dogs can win a prize. I hope so." I think to Europe they do not award any prize for a "minor" dog." I think to Europe they do not award any prize for a "minor" dog.

I can answer to this question is given in one of the dog papers, I therefore quote it. As to whether a judge either in Europe or anywhere else would give a large dog a prize, would depend on the judge's opinion as to whether a dog was fit for the work required of him, and the same of course, and whether temporary or permanent. Speaking generally, I think a dog would not win a prize as a show dog.

Personally I should not give a prize to a dog who were loose on the ring. It is not for the judge to find a dog who were loose in every instance; or permanent. A judge is supposed to judge the dog as they are put before him. I had a very nice dog, and I think it was the dog of the Crystal Palace, found in the field.

I have found both in the dog two years before a "black" light and the standard was very complete. But I was given no choice of anything else. The dog was loose, and that was that. I think it was quite fair.

Miss Wain's character is very good. She speaks in the high terms of Lloyd's and I am glad to hear Mr. Lloyd is in Nairobi and has been some time here. I have been some time here, and I am glad to hear that she is in Nairobi. I am glad to hear that she is in Nairobi.

I was looking through the "Spit" dog book of Mr. Thomas's
