At Port Florence a large shed was being put up and otherwise he was doing all he could to improve the existing state of things. He was glad their complaints had been brought rown Agents rejected the first lot and un-strunately he was in the hands of the copie at home. The class of trucks re-uird by merchant? to take goods up-jountry was principally open trucks while overed wagons were wanted for the down-ard traffic. This made matters extremportant letters were the following From Mr. H. B. Taylor, Gene ger, Uganda Railway, (Pep. 6th) mi poer, with the result that machinery Consulting Engineers, would be available for the purposes. Merchants often delayed taking their stuff away, thus putting the Railway to great inconvenience and he would like the Chamber of Commerce to ask neonle to they were landed.

The deputation passed a vote of thanks to Mr. Taylor.

SCHOOL BOOTS FOR

SCHOOL BOYS AND GIRLS.

Points to remember when buying Boots.

Point I. Shape. Boots for children should be the correct shape to allow natural development of the foot. You will find our Boots conform to this Point 2. Quality. They should be of good honest leather which gives the best wear and is the most healthy covering for the foot. Our boots are all leather.

Point 3. Style. A child's boot should be as smart in appearance as it is comfortable in wear. Our boots are made on stylish lasts.

Point 4. Price. 'Children have a way of "getting through" boots quicker than grown ups and Price is therefore a consideration. Our boots are priced as low as is possible for reliable footwear.

Have you heard of Uasin Gisbu And its recent awful fate? Of its hearts all toro with anguish And its tearrinsaists? Have you heard the ragic story How it fell upon its fame? Let me tell: of Uasin Gisbu— And the mail that never came! de of the average Twas a day of g-bleu promise, Swelled the P.M.G. with pride; And the battons of his waiscoat. He had opened free and wide. For he schemod of praise and glory; For he dreamt he'd make his name. By supplying Ussin Gisbu— With the mail that never came!

Strutting proudly in bis office Quosit the doughty P. M. G.—
"I'll sholish nigger transport Tis a mighty scheme you'll see, By the million I shall purchase Mule, so doelle, quiet, and tame, And they'll take to Ussin Gishu—"
Well—the mail that never earns!

As the great man thus was sche ning Up the Uasin Gishu way, Patiently the people waited One evenful, awful, day. Lovers hung upon the moments Gray haired fathers did the same.

As they gazed towards the horizon For the mail that never came!

Oh! thou P.M.G. so pompous Swelling in valuelotious pride. With the present authitudas and by personal authitudas and by personal authitudas The control of the control of the Think, and hide your bead in shame; For twas your tare as a diddless. Quased the mail that never came!

Sank the sun in all its spleudour Up the Usain Gishu way, And its last rays kissed so tender Heads in anguish bowed that day. Father, mother, sister, brother Calling fondly on some name; Hopeless, yearning, ever waiting For the mail that never came!

For the P.M.G. in wisdom
(No! the mules were not to blame!)
Had dispatched some ancient papers— Twas the mail that never came Not a letter (crime and shame) With the mail that never came!

Points to remember when buying Boots

Point i. Shape. Boots for children should be the correct shape to allow natural development of the foot. You will find our Boots conform to this.

our Boots conform to this.

Point 2. Quality. They should be of good honest leather which gives the best wear and is the most healthy covering for the foot. Our boots are all leather.

Point 3. Style. A child's boot should be as smart in appearance as it is comfortable in wear. Our boots are made on atylish lasts.

Point 4. Price. Children have a way of "getting through" boots quicker than grown ups and Price is therefore a consideration. Our boots are priced as low as is possible for reliable footwear.

TRIBUTE IN THE REICHSTAG.

Speaking in the Belebstag, Admiral von Tirplic attributed the great loss of life in the torpado boat seedless to the stormy weather. The Navy mourned for their comrades but the accident, would only spur them on to fulfit their daily for the Empira. The Presi-dent of the Releissag expressed his deep gried and that of the House at the secident.

Lever Bros. Concessions. GERMANY AND THE LIBERIAN GOVERNMENT.

The attention of the Reichatag has been drawn to the Lever Prothers concessions in Liberts and the agreement with that firm. The German Government of the Reichard Schrift of informed that the Liberian regressions had not given the recessary senction Should the contingency arise the German Government would not fail to protest because of the treaty rights of those Germans who were interested in Liberia.

ANOTHER BURDEN ON GERMAN

The Reichsteg has voted a first instale The Reichsteg has voted a first instantion of $25,000 for a new Imperial yacht which is estimated to cost $500,000. The Socialists subjected the vote to some scathing criticism, describing the demand as instantable in view of the burders that were already weighing down the people.

STRENGTHENING HER DEFENCES.

Beiler at Breupen reports that the Kaiser on returning from Heligoland muon a speech at the Museipast inneh given in his honour. In the speech he recalled the lessons of a century ago when the country is now as it was then confronted with the task of strengthesing her defenses and the Luiding up of her military forces.
