Mr. Baldwin's Warning To Labour Government.

GREAT CONSERVATIVE RALLY.

Wasted Opportunities of the Imperial Conference.

Another significant development of the political situa-tion in Britain was revealed in a speech by Mr.: Stanley Baldwin at a great Conservative gather-ing in London on Tuesday.

He said that the Labour Government were now at their wits' end and conscious that at any moment their door might sound.

Mr Baldwin declared that only one good thing had emerged from Labour's wasted opportunity at the Imperial Conference, namely, a decision to discuss the economic affairs of the Empire at Ottawa next

"They will be discussed by our party " said the Con-servative leader in a significant phrase.

Tribute to Methods of the Unofficial Delegates.

An indication of the work which has been done by the East African delegation is given in the following review by the London correspondent of the "East African Standard " ere is one criticism—that perhaps the official dele-gated have been inclined to devote too much atten-tion to known friends of East Africa instead of attempting to influence the views of critics.

In this latter connection the work of the two unofficial delegates from Tanganyika is praised.

results of the Select Committee's examination of the Kenya 1931 Estimates were revealed to Legis-lative Council yesterday when a voluminous report was presented. Later in the day there was a debate on the subject and the Council passed a motion adopting the Report.

s extracts from that document are given be the not result of the enquiry has been to deci he Government's original expenditure progra-by $21,000 and to increase the revenue three various adjustments by the sum of £40.

Elected Members agreed to support the Govern-nent's revenue figures on the understanding that ill necessary sleps would be taken to secure the staintenance and extension of agriculture. An assideration given that Government would give assideration of the staintenance and the staintenance and cannot be supported by the staintenance of the staintenance and amounce decisions on each without delay.

sence was placed by Elected Members on the need for the utmost sconony. The policy of holding section posts in sheyance and of vacancies remain-secting posts in sheyance and of vacancies remain-secting the section of the section of the supproved with the addition of an opinion by Bucked Members that every effort should be made when a vacancy occurred to find a suitable applicant locally.

enquiry into the clerical organisation of Govern-ment Departments was urged; also a standardisa-tion of wages paid to unskilled African employees olition of estate duty was again recommended.

Elected Mambers deleted practically all new appointments and declined to agree to Govern-ment's proposals to increase certain salary scales except in three instances where a condition was made that equivalent savings must be shown in the departmental vote.

view of the appointment of a new Governor the Elected Members did not oppose the Government Educas vote of £18,000 but expressed the hope—to be brought to the attention of Sir Joseph Byrns on his strivial—that in view of the financial position "he may so fit to give a lead to other Govern-ment Departments by reducing the vote shown."
