RAILWAY CONSTRUCTION IN TANGANYIKA

The Commission's Findings Outlined. Address by Sir Sydney Henn.

Evidence and Report Not Yet Available.

Sir Sydney Henn, who recently presided over the Tanganyika Railway Commission, delivered an address to the East African Section of the London Chamber of Commerce during last week...

The report of the Commission, with the whole of the evidence, he explained, was still in the hands of the printer. He outlined, however, the findings of the Commission, particularly in regard to the proposed branch railway lines in Tanganyika.

The Commission unanimously recommended the immediate construction of the Kilosa-Tikinda line at an estimated cost of something over £1,000,000. The construction of this line was an indispensable preliminary, he stated, to a more intensive native cultivation of the rich alluvial plain waters by the Kilimbero and Iriondozi.

Sir Sydney Henn found himself in a minority in regard to the Dodoma-Ubena line, which the majority of the Commission recommended. The majority favoured this line as forming the best link between Nairobi and the Highlands. Sir Sydney opposed it on financial grounds.

The Commission also favoured, by a majority, the construction of a line between Kilosa or some neighbouring point, and Korogwe or Mombasa on the Indian Ocean.

Further recommendations dealt largely with the question of road construction, particularly in relation to the proposed branch lines.

ROAD TRANSPORT PROBLEMS.

London, February 17.—The British Government has just received the report of the London Chamber of Commerce on the Tanganyika Railway Commission's findings with special reference to road transport.

The address was by Sir Sydney Henn, who presided over the Commission. He stated that the Commission's findings were of great importance in view of the fact that the railway was to be a feeder line.

The Commission also recommended the construction of a branch railway from Kilosa to Iriondozi, a distance of 124 miles, which would be a feeder line to the main line.

The Commission also recommended the construction of a branch railway from Kilosa to Mombasa, a distance of 124 miles, which would be a feeder line to the main line.

The Commission also recommended the construction of a branch railway from Kilosa to Dodoma, a distance of 124 miles, which would be a feeder line to the main line.

NAIROBI FISH SUPPLY REVELATIONS.
Trade in Urgent Need of Proper Organisation.
HEAVY LOSSES.

Long Delays Between Time of Catching and Marketing.
For some time Nairobi has been unable to rely upon its fish supply.

Enquiries made by the "East African Standard" in to the operation of this very important part of the food problem suggest that the whole organisation is in urgent need of re-organising.

The fish are several hours old before they leave Mombasa—probably the same applies to Kiumu—there are no cold storage facilities and the fish are being sold in the open air. The Colony's fish trade does not even have a house of cold storage tanks. So far as the Railway is concerned the fish traffic is just a mere box of goods—kept apart because the ice melts and water leaks.

Within the past week or two, half the fish stocked by Nairobi shops has gone bad.

The Nairobi Fish Inspector's daily task is stated to be to go out in an average lorry to allow him to be certain of always carrying out his inspection of fish before selling begins throughout the town.

IS PACKING AT FAULT?
The fish supplies of Nairobi come from two sources: one from the coast and the other from Mombasa. The fish are packed in wooden crates and shipped down the coast to Nairobi. THE DELEGATION

To the Editor "E. A. Standard" Sir,—The reference to the return of delegates from England? reads as one who knows very little about the subject and of the right of bringing down a political one treasury on the verge of death I would think to make one or two points on which I am not sure.

I cannot help thinking that this is the wish of farmers who sit on their farms and do their job. As I would suggest that the danger to Kenya does not come from any political party, but from the permanent staff of the Colonial Office.

I think that our present policy should be to preserve our present state until there is a change of Government at Home and then send delegates to try and arrange that the present permanent members of the Colonial Office dealing with Kenya Affairs should be retained and that less sympathetic members take their places.

What we want is a good permanent member who is type-cast by which I mean that he should be a man of good character, a good head of a good brain, a good servant of Government, a person whose interests are not purely personal. Types of Government should count. Types of Government are not permanent, but the method of selecting that person counts. Yours, etc.

WEMBATOE

Nairobi, December 13, 1930.

EDITORIAL

To the Editor "E. A. Standard" Sir,—The letter of Mr. Rosen on the application of the Government should count. Types of Government are not permanent, but the method of selecting that person counts. Yours, etc.

SHIPPING DISASTER OFF SWEDISH COAST.

Vessel Sinks in Three Minutes After Collision.

FAMOUS CRICKETER DROWNED.

Passengers, Aleep in Cabins, Have No Chance of Escape.

A terrible shipping disaster has occurred in the Cattegat, the narrow straits between the coasts of Denmark and Sweden, when a Finnish vessel sank within three minutes of collision with another Finnish ship.

The collision occurred late at night, when most of the passengers were in bed in their cabins, and owing to the darkness little of the ill-fated ship had time to escape.

Among the victims were Lt.-Col. J. W. H. Douglas, H. Douglas, who had been visiting Finland on business.

It is stated that the captain of the ship closed the watertight bulkheads immediately following collision, but it is not certain whether they functioned.

SURVIVORS PICKED UP.

Copenhagen, December 20. Thirty-two of 100 passengers are missing, but 68 survivors are being rescued.

The British ambassador in Copenhagen, Sir John Gifford, is expected to leave for London on December 20.

The actual English loss in the disaster, which was reported in the Daily Express, has been put at 100.

Frederick, manager of the ship, said that 100 British people have been rescued and 68 are missing.

Officials jump into sea. The Swedish rescue "Herald" was seen to have jumped into the sea after the ship had sunk.

The total survivors are now 68, of whom 50 are British.

Mr. H. P. Moly (President of the committee) said that the ship was not in a position to be rescued.

 there is a story told of him that during one of his tours with the N.M.C. in Amalinda he was called upon to make a speech before the fishermen attending one of the meetings. His speech was very appropriate, and indicated the manager's aim and a resolution he was prepared to fulfil any man's wishes.

Of a somewhat abrupt and sudden nature, these resolutions seemed to make him indelicately acquainted with him. Nevertheless, whatever his characteristics, he was a fair criticiser, and a valuable informant.
 The late Mr. J. H. Douglas, father of J. W. H. Z., was the present president of the Amalinda Fishing Association and the well known referee at the N.M.C. His new Christmas message being well received in 1919 and 20. These details ensure they come from the limelight of the sports scene whose photos will be hard to fill.
