HINTS TO LAWN TENNIS PLAYERS IN KENTIA No. 1.

(Specs. to "H. A. Brander" by Arthur Hain, member of the Ontario Lawn Tennis Club.) Very difficult to know what to do in a short game. There are a number of tennis players who will give you a great many tips on the game, but the best advice is to play the game as it is, and not to try to improve your game, unless you are a beginner.

Equipment. The tennis racket is the most important piece of equipment. It should be chosen with care, and the player should practice with it before he goes to a tournament.

Service. The service is the most important part of the game. It should be played with a firm wrist, and the ball should be served into the court.

Backcourt. The backcourt is the most important part of the game. It should be played with a firm wrist, and the ball should be served into the court.

Forehand. The forehand is the most important part of the game. It should be played with a firm wrist, and the ball should be served into the court.

Net. The net is the most important part of the game. It should be played with a firm wrist, and the ball should be served into the court.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT PROLOGUE

King's Hope for the India Conference.

UNEMPLOYMENT.

Anxiety Expressed by World Wide Trade Depression.

Imperial Parliament has been postponed until October 25.

The King's Speech reviewing the past session referred to the success of the Naval Conference, expressed regret at the breakdown of the Anglo-Spanish negotiations, and spoke of the resumption of diplomatic relations with Russia.

Reference was made to the coming Imperial Conference and the value of such meetings in the promotion of an understanding between different units of the British Commonwealth of Nations.

His Majesty alluding to the forthcoming Round Table Conference on India, expressed the hope that the spirit of mutual trust and friendship may unite all races and peoples in this and other representative of each country in their discharge of the responsibilities which the Conference would impose upon them.

Grave anxiety was expressed regarding the high level of unemployment in Britain.

CHINESE COMMUNISTS' GHASTLY ACT.

Englishwoman's Finger Cut Off.

RANSOM REMINDER

Others to Follow if Money is not Paid.

Peking, August 5. An act of ghastly brutality has been perpetrated by Communist bandits in the Kien Pei district. They have been holding captive since July 4 two English missionaries, the Rev. J. H. Harrison and Miss Nettleton. In order to exact ransom to secure the payment of £1000 for their release, the Communists cut off the finger of Miss Nettleton's daughter who was sent to the authorities with a demand for the payment of the ransom.

The British Legation in Yunnan is very restless but it believes that the Communists have threatened to cut off Miss Nettleton's other finger.

London, August 6. The Church Missionary Society has authorized its representatives at Fuzhou to pay the ransom, if the British Consul considers it necessary to secure the release of the captured women missionaries Miss Nettleton and Harrison.
