AFRIDIS' ATTACK ON CITY OF PESHAWAR.

Raiders Driven Off with Casualties.

NO LARGE CONCENTRATION.

[BY WIRELESS]

After a series of raids which have given them no opportunity to approach the city, British authorities have been able to hold a body of Afridis troops who have been held by the Afridis since the beginning of August 5 with the Afridis in the surrounding villages open upon them. A party of Afridis got into the city on August 10 and were driven off by fire to a small workshop.

The railway between Peshawar and City and the road telephone and telegraph lines to the north-east and south-west of the city have been cut. The Afridis are taking shelter in numerous villages around Peshawar.

Communication Cut Off.

Peshawar, August 11.—The Afridis who entered the city last night were driven off by fire to a small workshop. The Afridis were dispersed by the British who had arranged to concentrate their forces at Peshawar. The Afridis were repelling British troops in a number of unoccupied villages along the railway line.

A few days ago, when the Afridis were reported to have been repelled, it was reported that they had withdrawn from the city.

Air Force in Action.

Peshawar, later.—The big attack threatened by the Afridis was not carried out, and the raiding party on the city on Thursday returned to their camp. A small attack developed there, but Peshawar Valley was not driven off.

The Air Force bombed the Afridis in their workshop and destroyed a party of Afridis who were sheltered in a house in the northeast of Peshawar, killing three Afridis.

Situation Not Serious.

There was no disposition in official quarters to believe that the situation on the frontier was serious, and it is not believed that tribesmen will, therefore, interfere with the British and the situation. More details of the raiding party recently arrived there.

Raiders Dispersed.

Sims, August 9.—Today's news indicates that the tribal force which has been threatening the frontier is not as large as was anticipated. Over fifty British Forces troops were in action on the frontier.

Peshawar, August 11.—Afridis approached with outstretched hands and offered to lay down their arms. They were told to do so, and they did so. They were then invited to go to a small workshop.

Attack on the City.

Sims, August 12.—The latest information states that several raids can be expected to continue during the next few days. The raiders are reported to be in touch with some tribesmen who have been very friendly to the British.

Communist Forces Advance in Honan.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCEY]

Sydney, August 7.—Today a general strike was declared in the whole of Honan province by the Chinese Communist Party. It was the first time that the Chinese Communists had called a general strike of this kind. Engagements between the bridge builders and the Communists have been suspended for a week, and a gap of 42 inches has been left in one section of the bridge, with 100 men working on it. The cost of the bridge will be £1,000,000.

The bridge stretches between Shantung and Honan over a shallow river. The bridge is 1,000 feet long, and the cost of the bridge from Pao-tai to the north will be £1,370,000, with 100 men working on it.

It is reported that an American who refused to exchange his car, which he had stolen to death, has been shot dead in Honan.

[BY WIRELESS.]

Rugby, August 13.—The inquiry into the cause of the six victims of the crash of the British Aeroplane Manufacturing Company's biplane flying from Rouen to Toulouse on August 10 has been completed, and the Marquis of Dufferin, Viscountess Milner, Sir John Salter, and General Lefford Lefford, Lt.-Col. Hendon, Mr. H. G. Smith, and Mr. Sherring were present.

The cause of the disaster was not definitely ascertained, but the deaths were due to falling from the machine, the cause of the disaster being unknown.

Major Cooper, Captain Anderson, and the Air Ministry stated that minute examination had been made of the material or workmanship in the aircraft, and that no fault was found in either.

He found no evidence of neglig-

Holyhead, August 14. Seven and a three-quarter hours after leaving St. Helena's air port the R. 100 passed through the first of the two gales which it had been expected would blow during its flight across the Atlantic. The aircraft had been flying at 10,000 feet when the wind reached 50 miles per hour, and in a straight line was being driven along at 10 miles per hour. A layer of rain was falling, and the atmosphere that her speed had been increased to 120 miles per hour.

The weather conditions were so bad that the crew decided to make a quick trip across the Atlantic. The Air Ministry had given permission for the R. 100 to land at any suitable place along the route. The wind was still about 50 miles an hour, and 50 miles along the coast of the Azores, where the R. 100 had been flying, the wind was still blowing at 40 miles an hour. The German radio station at Lissabon, Portugal, was able to receive the R. 100's messages.

At 11.30 a.m. the R. 100 had reached the coast of the Azores, and the wind was still blowing at 40 miles an hour. The German radio station at Lissabon, Portugal, was able to receive the R. 100's messages.

Standfast of Albatros.

[BY WIRELESS.] London, August 15. British representatives aboard the R. 100, which had been flying with a following wind and clear skies, were able to receive messages from the R. 100 at 10 miles per hour and a temperature of 70 degrees. The R. 100 has now created a new record for the shortest time taken to cross the Atlantic. The R. 100 has already made the return flight to Britain, and the Albatros is now back in London. Official Wireless Services.

Standfast of Albatros.

Continuing his report, Mr. Weston says: "The R. 100 is enjoying ideal weather and passed through the Azores in a very short time, maintaining a steady average speed of 90 m.p.h. in this bad weather. The R. 100 has now completed eight hours of flight since the day it took off from the Azores, and is the third aircraft to have completed the crossing. It is now about 11 miles from the coast of Africa, and is the second aircraft to have completed the crossing as it was at the moment of departure."

Safe Return.

The R. 100, which was 12 hours behind schedule when it took off this morning, arrived at its destination, London, at 11.30 a.m. today. The aircraft had been flying across the Atlantic. A depression in the North Sea had caused the R. 100 to be delayed, and it is expected to go to the Azores again. When the R. 100 crossed the Atlantic, it was 12 hours behind schedule. While en route from a Weymouth point south of latitude

40° S., the R. 100 had to fly over the South Atlantic. A depression in the North Sea had caused the R. 100 to be delayed, and it is expected to go to the Azores again. When the R. 100 crossed the Atlantic, it was 12 hours behind schedule. While en route from a Weymouth point south of latitude

EAST AFRICAN GOVERNORS.

Sir William Gowers Returning.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCEY.]

Holyhead, August 20. It is understood that Governor of Tanganyika, Sir Donald Cameron will return to Britain on August 25, and that Sir William Gowers, who has been appointed to succeed him, will arrive on November 1.

It will be remembered that it was stated at the last African Conference that Sir William Gowers, who had been appointed to succeed him, had agreed to extend his tour for another period of 12 months.

He was not therefore making any arrangements for returning earlier than the end of the flight. —British Official Wireless Services.

A Spotted Broadbill.

Holyhead, August 20. A spotted broadbill, a bird which is found in a wireless station, was captured after several hours of hunting in the forest. The bird was captured in a trap set up by the R. 100. It is now being kept in a weather cage. She expects to reach Ceylon.

Despite the heavy winds and rain, the bird was captured. The spotted broadbill remained exceptionally well.

The correspondent adds that there were no birds in the morning owing to the fact that the rain had stopped. The R. 100 had left the setting of the balloon tent and was flying over the ocean.

At Midway.

Holyhead, August 20. The accomplishment of the R. 100 in flying from Midway to Japan in a distance of 8,000 miles in 27 hours was given great publicity in the United States. The R. 100 has now reached the coast of India.

The ship was sighted at the mouth of the Indus River, and was due to proceed to Peshawar, the capital of the Northwest Frontier Province of Sind and Baluchistan, during the night. —British Official Wireless Services.

Economic Conditions.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCEY.] London, August 17. The economic situation in India is deteriorating and the continued import boycott is threatening imminent ruin to a large number of small Indian dealers and manufacturers of the social and economic life of the country.

A European Meeting.

Calcutta, August 20. The European community to-day held a special meeting of its political, trade and cultural committees at the Royal Opera House to discuss two controversial issues.

CLOSING OF COTTON MILLS AT BOMBAY.

Further Workers Throw
Out of Employment.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCEY.]

Bombay, August 14. Two hundred cotton mills were closed yesterday in consequence of the closing of the spinning department of the factory to be affected in the group of 24 European owned cotton mills, known as the "Ward Cotton Mills" boycott list. This makes 2,000 workers unemployed, and 20,000 others whose daily earning ceased to bring in 20 rupees.

It will be remembered that it was stated at the last African Conference that Sir William Gowers, who had been appointed to succeed him, had agreed to extend his tour for another period of 12 months.

He was not therefore making any arrangements for returning earlier than the end of the flight. —British Official Wireless Services.

A Letter to the Vicerey.

Poona, August 14. As the volume of conference work has increased in recent days in the interior of the country, several delegations have written a letter which the intermediaries, members of the Legislative Assembly, are submitting to the Vicerey.

Communist Bills.

Poona, August 14. In the weekly review of the Indian Communist Party, it is stated that the communists have spread over both sides of the Indus River, and that they are now in control of the R. 100 and will pay a special tribute to the Indian people.

Despite the heavy winds and rain, the R. 100 remained exceptionally well.

The correspondent adds that there were no birds in the morning owing to the fact that the rain had stopped. The R. 100 had left the setting of the balloon tent and was flying over the ocean.

UNEMPLOYMENT IN BRITAIN.

Total Now Exceeds
Two Millions.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCEY.]

London, August 20. The total number of unemployed in Great Britain has now reached a figure of 2,000,000.

It is the first time since 1921 that the figure has been exceeded. In 1921, the total was 2,050,429, including 700,000 men employed in agriculture, and 1,350,000 in industry.

There was a sharp drop on September 1, 1922, to 1,200,000, and since that date the figure has steadily risen, and a sharp white sign is now placed on the door of every house which has been exceed-

BRIDGE OVER SYDNEY HARBOUR.

Arch Successfully Joined.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCEY.]

Sydney, August 14. The bridge which spans the harbor of Sydney has been successfully joined. The bridge, which is 1,000 feet long, was built in sections and was lowered into position by a crane.

It is the first bridge to be built in Australia, and it is expected to shorten the time of travel between the city and the surrounding districts.

The War in China.

GOVERNMENT SUCCESS REPORTED.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCEY.]

Nanking, August 15. It is reported that the Government troops have received reinforcements, and are preparing to be moved northward, according to the latest information.

One compression engine has been obtained to drive one of the petro-ether engines, and it is expected that four more will be obtained before the end of the month.

The second was an official spokesman of the Government, who said he had received a copy of the speech.

HOW VIM CLEANS YOUR FLOORS

You can easily have floors spotless with Vim. Vim is a fine Vim floor cleaner which removes dirt and stains from all kinds of floors. It is safe, fresh smelling and leaves no greasy film.

Vim does other useful things. A little Vim on a damp cloth, and you can remove any stain. Use Vim for all household cleaning.

Buy the Best Less Often

There is no economy in buying inexpensive and shoddy goods. You get them at a low price, but they will not last long. They will either you throw away or give away.

RAY-O-VAC Flashlights and batteries are made and distributed by the makers of these goods. They are the best obtainable.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor.—Sir,
I have the honor to thank you for your kind reply to my letter, and to add a few more observations on the subject. In all cases the name and address of the correspondent will be mentioned accompanying a letter, unless otherwise desired, and a guarantee of good faith is also essential in every communication.

The Maize Industry.

DRYING PLANTS ON THE FARMS.

To the Editor.—Sir,
I have the honor to beg to draw your attention to the following facts:

Mr. J. H. Standard.

Mr. ——There seems to be a very large amount of capital available and I am anxious to know if anyone can give me some advice on the best way to use it for the development of the maize industry in East Africa.

The cost of maize is now very high and there is no market for it.

I have been told that

there is a great deal of capital available for the development of the maize industry in East Africa.

I have been told that

there is a great deal of capital available for

FROCKS
fresh and shaped.

To keep your pretty tennis frocks fresh and delicate as new, Agfa Film has a special bath made especially for them. It softens and relaxes the fibres, without hard rubbing, so that they will always look like the day you bought them. For the bath, take a basinful of warm water, add a few drops of Agfa Film, and soak the frocks for half an hour. Then wash them in the usual way.
