KENYA CALEDONIANS FOREGATHER.

Twenty-seventh Annual Nairobi Dinner.

SPEECHES AND STORIES.

Renewed Faith in the Future of the Colony.

Colony dinner in Kenya is held every year on an occasion which makes a very special appeal to the present to better the future of the Colony.

The twenty-seventh annual dinner of the Caledonian Society of Kenya was held in the New British Hotel, Nairobi, on Saturday evening, Dec. 3rd, and over 200 members and guests were present.

The annual general ritual in the form of the national flag, always leads to a Caledonian dinner of some sort or a distinction. This dinner is the property of the Society, Mr. H. H. Moore, the Mayor of Nairobi, and the Mayor of Mombasa.

The Secretary, Captain J. G. Keatinge, presided at the dinner. He opened the dinner by a speech in which he referred to the progress of the Colony.

CALEDONIAN DINNER AT NAKURU.

Lord Francis Scott Reviews Kenya's Problems.

Lord Francis Scott, a distinguished member of the Caledonian Society, has just returned from Nakuru where he was the guest of honor at a dinner held in the hotel there on Friday evening, December 5th. Lord Francis was the first of his rank to visit the Colony since his appointment as Governor-General in 1929. He was accompanied by his wife and two daughters. The dinner was attended by a large number of the leading members of the Caledonian Society, and was a most interesting and profitable one. Lord Francis made a number of interesting remarks, and his speech was well received. He stressed the importance of the Caledonian Society in the Colony, and the need for its members to be active in the community. He also stressed the need for the Colony to be self-sufficient, and to develop its own resources. Lord Francis's visit was a most successful one, and his speech was a most interesting one. The dinner was a most successful one, and Lord Francis's speech was a most interesting one.

CALEDONIAN DINNER AT NAKURU.

Lord Francis Scott, a distinguished member of the Caledonian Society, has just returned from Nakuru where he was the guest of honor at a dinner held in the hotel there on Friday evening, December 5th. Lord Francis was the first of his rank to visit the Colony since his appointment as Governor-General in 1929. He was accompanied by his wife and two daughters. The dinner was attended by a large number of the leading members of the Caledonian Society, and was a most interesting and profitable one. Lord Francis made a number of interesting remarks, and his speech was well received. He stressed the importance of the Caledonian Society in the Colony, and the need for its members to be active in the community. He also stressed the need for the Colony to be self-sufficient, and to develop its own resources. Lord Francis's visit was a most successful one, and his speech was a most interesting one.

A man may change his whisky, but a distiller does not change his. It is bottled at Kilmarnock, the quality that makes for popularity is whisky. That is why a bottle of Johnnie Walker "Red Label" has as enthusiasts all over the world. It is bottled at Kilmarnock, and has the same fine quality and flavor every bottle contains. Always come up to the highest capacity of distillation.

men may come - men may go -

For that reason no other firm has succeeded in making a better whisky than Johnnie Walker "Red Label," and Johnnie Walker also has grown to be the largest in the world.

By A. H. Spence (Editor)
All communications for chess should be sent through Mr. Spence, 11, Upper Circular Road, Singapore. Chess is played on a board with 64 squares, 32 white and 32 black pieces. The object is to checkmate the king of the opposite color. The king is the most important piece, and must not be put in check. The queen is the most powerful piece, and can move any number of squares in any direction. The rook can move any number of squares in any straight line. The bishop can move any number of squares in any diagonal line. The knight can move two squares in any direction, jumping over other pieces. The pawn can move one square forward, or two squares forward on its first move. It can capture any piece that it can reach.

CURIOUS CASE IN SUPREME COURT. Judge Criticises Jury's Action.

An unusual position arose on Tuesday when the Supreme Court was asked to give a verdict on a case involving a woman who had been accused of murdering her husband.

Discrepancy in Evidence

When the jury was called upon to give a verdict, the judge pointed out a discrepancy in the evidence. He noted that the woman's story did not match the evidence presented by the prosecution.

Conflicting Stories

The first witness on Indian tried with the complainant, said that he had seen the woman at the time of the murder. However, the second witness, who was a friend of the woman, said that she had not seen her at that time.

BY-ELECTION RESULT AT WHITECHAPEL. Reduced Majority for Labour.

Labour's majority was reduced at the Whitechapel by-election. The Conservative candidate, Mr. James G. G. G., won the seat with a reduced majority.

Question of Observation

He thought that he had noted earlier cases in which the accused had been acquitted. He noted that the evidence in this case was not as strong as in previous cases.

Jury Interview

At the close of the trial, the judge interviewed the jury. He asked them to give their reasons for their verdict. They stated that they were not convinced by the evidence.
