SEVEN MILLION ACRES UNDER LOCUSTS.

Severe Gravity of the Kenya Position.

DESPITE REMEDIAL MEASURES.

Situation Reviewed in Tanganyika Legislature.

Although remedial measures are meeting with some success in the locust campaign the latest report from the Department of Agriculture indicates that there is still a grave danger to the Colony from locusts which have escaped destruction or have entered Kenya from one of the neighbouring territories.

The total area over which hatching has taken place is about seven million acres. It is estimated that sufficient poison bait to deal with this area has almost been issued, but the fact that a distance of 200 miles has been covered in a variety of areas.

The use of smudge fires is advocated to scare flying swarms away from growing crops. It is also suggested that shrill noises such as whistles may be employed for the same purpose.

Statement on the locust position in Tanganyika was made in the Legislative Council in the territory, but at the time the Kenya report on the locust situation in other Tanganyika or Uganda had been received.

Smudge Fires.

Mr. Suk: Batchels of hoppers were present and are being treated fully baited. General Kamukama: Operations by the commission conducted at high pressure, but have been hindered by the weather. Both Tanganyika and North and South Rhodesia by the outbreak of several Administrative and Agricultural Officers.

Settled Area.

These areas, having operations, the newly hatched locusts have been commenced. Hoppers have been reported in the district area now being actively being treated. Hoppers have been reported at Boy and great quantities of hoppers, it has been reported by the hatching operations.

General.

Factors in settled areas and Administrative Officers in several areas are making transmission efforts, and are being generally good. Mr. Suk: 15,000 bags of locusts have already been reported. Mr. Suk: 15,000 bags of locusts have already been reported. Mr. Suk: 15,000 bags of locusts have already been reported.

INDIA NOT A PARTY ISSUE.

No Vote Taken in House of Commons.

THE CONJUNCTION QUESTION.

Conservative Support for the Government.

By-Wives' Story.

In order to avoid any impression that the question of India has become a Party issue, a vote was taken at the end of last night's House of Commons discussion of the Conjunction Bill. The Prime Minister stated that the Government was not taking any vote on the subject.

 London, April 24.
