African Standard

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 24, 1913.

The Standard Notes.

The Union Castle steamer "Cathartes Cutler," from Mombasa, arrived at Garissa on the 21st—Leader.

The death has occurred, within the week, of the late Chief Officer Arthur Andrew Frederick, R.C.B. former Master of the Nambouss, and of the Coastguard Schooner "Glenferrie."

On the west side of Government Road, a new drive is to be substituted for the old one. It will be 100 feet wide and will be paved with asphalt.

The Uganda steamer "Cathartes Cutler," from Mombasa, arrived at Garissa on the 21st—Leader.

The night of the District Commissioner of Nairobi directing matters in the work of clearing up and tidying the port opposite his office in a recent case. This was the first time since Monday morning and some beneficial result is expected from the work.

Nairobi Boy Scouts.

TRIP TO NGONGU.

On Thursday December 19th a party of five scouts left their camp at Ngongu under the leadership of Messrs. A. F. Fisher and G. A. C. in the morning.

After another half the scouts started descent. The last camp on the foot of the hill was reached in half an hour.

The scouts made a demonstration in the morning, and then returned to the camp.

THE only people who really believe that the imitation gives as much satisfaction as genuine LEA & PERDRE are those who do not know what a true sauce should be.

In this sense it is not merely an added flavor. It must bring out hidden flavors that are in the food itself. Hence, which imitation you would use.

Every person of refined taste knows this. That is what makes the difference between all the imitations and the genuine Lea & Perdre.
