UGANDA OBJECTS TO "CARRYING TRAVEL"

Heated Discussion on Railway Matters.

Kampala, July 11.—The Uganda Government has today announced that it is objecting to the proposed "carrying travel" clause in the new Uganda Railway Bill. The clause, which is contained in the Bill, would allow the railway to carry passengers and their luggage on the main line to and from the branch lines. The Government is objecting to this clause because it would allow the railway to carry passengers and their luggage on the main line to and from the branch lines.
