Lord Francis Scott's Appeal

FRANK REPLIES TO HE. SIR J. BYRNE'S

chably we have misunderstood His Excellency's atti-tude, as he says he really wants our co-operation. Let us therefore closs the breach, be frank with each other and try to work together for the good of the country."

ne are two sentences from a long speech delivered by Lord Francis Scott at Njoro on Sunday evening—a speech made with the agreement of his colleagues on the Kenya Legislative Council.

d Francis, who frankly oriticised Sir Joseph Byrne's policy and replied, statement, for statement, to his suggestion that Elected Members had not made practical suggestions on finance, said that perhaps he (Lord Francis) had been in error, although he was not conscious of it.

should like you to know that never once since I have been Chairman of the Elected Members has my opinion been sought on any matter of policy, outside the Executive Council Chamber where, of course, I am free to give views like any other member of Executive Council II.

MUTUAL WITHDRAWAL OF TROOPS.

Meanwhile Series of Attacks and Counter-Attacks Takes Place Near Shanghai.

Following a meeting between Chinese and Japanese representatives on board H.M.S.

"Kent." the flagship of Admiral Sir Howard Kelly, 'an agreement has been reaging for the cessation of hostilities. Both sides have agreed to withdraw their trofops, to be followed by a conference at which interested neutral Powers will be represented.

The discussions on the British flagship were protracted and for some time the difficulties could not be negotiated, particularly in regard to Japanese demands. The Chinese, on the other hand, suggested that the Japanese were only trying to fill in time pending the arrival of reinforcements.

In spite of the peace conferences and the eventual agreement, severe and sanguinary aghting continued. The Japanese launched three attacks, but were in each case driven back by Chinese counter-attacks which reginned the lost ground. Finally the Japanese were reported to be advancing along the whole front.

Oring to the lack of knowledge that the American Consular at Shanghai had been used from the vicinity of the Japanese Consulars. a Chinese brigadier was responsible for the loss of valuable documents and plans. He was taking them in a value to the American Consulate, when he was captured by Japanese marines, and the value was taken from him.
