NOTES FOR THE MOTORIST.

Future of Grass Track Motor Cycle Racing.

HAS THE DEATH KNELL OF THE SPORT BEEN RUNG?

The Price of Snobbery.

(By the Managing Editor.)

"Is it just Kenya?" How often do we hear that question asked in connection with the motor cycle racing which is being held in that country. It is a question which is asked in a spirit of incredulity, and it is a question which is asked in a spirit of incredulity.

It is a question which is asked in a spirit of incredulity, and it is a question which is asked in a spirit of incredulity. It is a question which is asked in a spirit of incredulity, and it is a question which is asked in a spirit of incredulity.

CRITICISM OF TANGANYIKA'S 1932 BUDGET

Unofficial Members' Views.

OPPOSITION TO GRANT-IN-AID TO MEET RECURRENT EXPENSES.

The Hon. M. P. Llewellyn, one of the Unofficial Members of the Tanganyika Legislative Council, succinctly expressed the views held by most of his colleagues in regard to the 1932 Budget... He expressed reluctantly that they could not afford to increase to run a 20 horse power propulsion for a 100 horse power engine.

Speaking on behalf of Unofficial Members, Major W. C. Land said that since he had not been invited to attend, which could not properly be regarded as recurrent income, while the expenditure estimates were also too high.

Appeal For White Settlement.

It was indicated by the Unofficial Members for the future by declaring that it was not the intention of Unofficial Members that increased expenditure should mean an increase in permanent staff.

Major Land declared that the public would acknowledge that very serious debt had been made by Government to reduce the national debt... He said that the Government had not done anything to reduce the national debt... He said that the Government had not done anything to reduce the national debt.

The Unofficial Members, however, did not find themselves in entire agreement with the Government's view of the national debt... He said that the Government had not done anything to reduce the national debt.
