NURSE HALL, 60 Mrs. Basatt, Commercial Place, Landport, Fortumouth, England, writes:—I was suffering from nervous breakdown with Internal Neuralgas, when I began a course of Plonderines. After having taken it for and consider it the best tone. I have ever tried. As a remoty for all nervous disorders I think there is northing to equal Plonderine, appecially as I was even up by more than one destor pervious to taking Plonderine, and can now say I am perfectly will and strong, and have taken nothing else."
