When I asked him if it was not a little late for me to go to France, he said: "No, it is not a little late, it is just in time."

"I'm glad to hear that," I said, "but I'm not sure I shall be able to go."

"You must go," he said, "it is a matter of life and death."

"I'll try to go," I said, "but I'm not sure I shall be able to."

victim owes his safety solely to his own, and not to any combination of factors. Motor-cars, usually, have been the cause of the trouble. The other side of the question, the motorist in a motor-car, is a person who has a legitimate complaint against the cyclist, and it is not surprising that he should be a victim of the same kind of accident. No less familiar is the case of a rich boy riding a motor-car, who is killed or injured by a cyclist, and who is then found to have been the cause of the trouble.

The following districts are prohibited areas in which motor-cars are not allowed to be driven.
