A BAY OF HOPE

Every patriot views with alarm the pro-longed life of a Parliament which failed to prepare for the Great War, and which has taken atrong steps to best the enemy great goading by members of the press public. It is only natural to fear that and public is so only natural to rear that such leaders (7) will let the Empire down if they have to arrange terms of peace. they have to arrange terms of peace.

We all know how Parliament extended its proper life and we have had hints from efficial quarters that another such illegal step is contemplated.
