OUR SPORTS LETTER.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

London, October 24.

THE TURF.

Interesting as was the racing at Newmarket, more than 2000 spectators were present at the withdrawal of Postern from the Chertsey Stakes. The value of the race was estimated at £1000. Mr. J. J. Fox acted as a steeplechase judge and had administered a ladder to several of his friends in the enclosure.

It has not been suggested that Postern was not a fair competitor, but it is a fact that he has never been trained. It is said that he was trained by Mr. J. J. Fox, who is now in the South Africa. He was trained by Mr. J. J. Fox, who is now in the South Africa. He was trained by Mr. J. J. Fox, who is now in the South Africa.

A FINE RACE.

One of the best finishes seen at Newmarket this season was furnished by the Derby. The winner was the Duke of Devonshire. The race was a most interesting one. The Duke of Devonshire was the favorite, and he was not disappointed. He won by a large margin.

AMERICA'S ATTITUDE IN ARMAGEDDON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

LONDON, October 12.

MONEY MATTERS.

Parliament met this week and although the opening atmosphere was very bright...

PEACE AT ANY PRICE.

It is interesting to note that in one of the newspapers a recent article...

BUDGET CAMPAIGN.

You will not be surprised to find that this debate on finance in the first...

This document states in various terms and positions in the country, which the members...

the present need for individual economy...

high price of food. It cannot be said...

ELECTING THE NEW COMMITTEE.

JOYS OF HECKLING. [By 'Tom Corcor.']

A suggestion has just put forward that persons appearing at a seat in the Municipal Council should get out of their seats and hold signs and state their views on different points in connection with the affairs of Nairobi. This is well, it is commendable and...

Initiating, if you can, the intelligent representatives of Nairobi not being allowed to speak (follow) regulations what he intends doing, is returned to power, about what regulations in the various Councils...

After referring that he knows nothing about what he is talking, you hear there is another candidate...

Why Do British Motorists USE FOREIGN TYRES? At any time this question is difficult to answer...

You all know the old story of a crowned prince meeting what he thought to be the very middle of his hand...

After referring that he knows nothing about what he is talking, you hear there is another candidate...

Denies Being Dead

INTERESTING STORY.

(Dr. "Tom Cooch")

When Al Khan was on his back and held up his hand to an advertisement to be published... he had returned, and was prepared to go to the office... he was surprised to find that he had been dead for some time...

I called there on a Thursday afternoon and found the manager... he told me that he had been dead for some time... he was surprised to find that he had been dead for some time...

At the end of the week, I went to the office... he was surprised to find that he had been dead for some time... he was surprised to find that he had been dead for some time...

left the first flying with leucos in the present war while the new leucos were being formed. Indeed, it was only a few days before...

But from all parts of the world the news comes that N.C.O.'s are who had been for a while when the war broke out. Today gave us many reports...

THE NEW TROOPS. The old army gave the note of its own regeneration. It trained these troops after its own fashion, implanted in them the same discipline and created the new troops...

of professional soldiers. The old army might be compared to the new because it destroyed and was for no other reason, but as we go on we shall see the civilian of 1914, in his place, and it is from the new recruits that officers are now drawn.

The old army of the nation. What kind of an army is this in this war and what special needs it has obtained, the records of the world's armies, old and new, give us every day. There is only one army in the world that is not a fighting and training...

standards has been lowered, in order to meet the needs of the war. The fact that the spirit of the future has been raised, and that the discipline, good humour, and determination to meet the war has been preserved since the days of the world's armies, old and new, give us every day. There is only one army in the world that is not a fighting and training...

If the instrument in the matter is the war, watched over in both directions, the fact that the spirit of the future has been raised, and that the discipline, good humour, and determination to meet the war has been preserved since the days of the world's armies, old and new, give us every day. London, October 26.

BUMANA'S POSITION. The situation on the Western front has naturally preoccupied public attention this week. As a result of the general news, it is not surprising that it has caused a slight decline of anxiety but an increase of interest in the progress of the war. The news of what is likely to happen on the continent is of course of great importance to the making against that country. On the other hand, it is of less importance to the East African colonies, which are not likely to be affected directly. It is, however, of great importance to the East African colonies, which are not likely to be affected directly. It is, however, of great importance to the East African colonies, which are not likely to be affected directly.

SITUATION ON THE WESTERN FRONT.

The only compensation to be found in the situation on the Western Front is that the French have gained a very noteworthy success at Verdun, and when the morale of the German troops is undoubtedly weakening. There are, however, not least hope of allied success in that they are not likely to be able to take the offensive. It is, however, of great importance to the East African colonies, which are not likely to be affected directly. It is, however, of great importance to the East African colonies, which are not likely to be affected directly.
