An exceptional opportunity is thus presented of obtaining what is generally regarded as one of the choicest blocks of mixed agricultural land in the Protectorate. I ord Dela-mere's original selection of land at Njoro was the pick of the Highland—"Broids Farm" is the pick of that block. which he retained for his own purposes when four years ago be split it up into small holdings.

The Farm consists of 3,034 acres, less road reserves, lying between the Mole and Rongai Rivers, so situated that it can be ent up into ten small farms of 300 acres acre 350 acres acre at present under mains, 110 acres under wheat, 40 under citrus, 100 ready for planting, and a further 100 cleared—making 700 acres in all:

The permanent improvements include a comfortable dwelling house, stores, mains shed etc., a water furrow from which a considerable area could be irrigated. Approximately 200 head of ozen are included, and a number of implements and tools.

No other property in the Protectorate so lends itself to intense cultivation. The 40 acres of citrus is elequent evidence of what could be done with that crop. Under evidence of what could be done with that crop. Under irrigation, portions of the Farm could be out up into economic small-holdings for citrus and other fruits. Maize and Wheat do as well as anywhere elso in the Protectorate. Beans are giving big returns in the district. Coffee is doing well in the valley.
