World's News by Cable. Christmas Catastrophe Scotch Express Disaster Pitiful Sights. Miraculous Escapes.

(Writer's Special to 'East African Standard') London.

The tragedies of the week may give the name of the Black Christmas to the 1910 Christmas week. Early on Saturday morning the Midland Scotch Express from London was wrecked on the southeast of Carlisle where she collided with two pilot engines. Several coaches were ablaze. The first reports of this catastrophe was that there were three killed and 25 wounded. Rescue work is difficult as the accident occurred in the wild country around Alcock. Mr. Doctors from Kirkby Stephen hurried to the scene of the disaster.

The most pitiful incident of the Alcock disaster was a Hampshire lady and gentleman, travelling to Glasgow, who saw their child hurled to death. Some bodies are charred beyond recognition. Many passengers had miraculous escapes.

A Midland train conductor believes that the fire was due to an explosion of the gas tanks when the flames spread with incredible rapidity and only the mail coach could be detached.

Hitherto nine cases of death are reported as the result of the terrific impact of the express on the rocks of the two pilot engines. The latter were hurled 150 yards. Four engines were derailed, and many coaches overturned.

The express train was very long and carried at least five hundred passengers, most of the passengers an occupant of a sleeping car and that the accident had occurred on a dark winter night. The fire broke out and soon every vehicle except the mail and the train was burned. In the meanwhile it continued to rain. Just the moment to see the monster who was extinguished from the debris. Special train were sent conveying the wounded back to Carlisle. The search among the wrecked coaches revealed several charred human remains.

The horror of the disaster has been amplified in the horror of the Scotch Express, containing Christmas holiday makers, is unparalleled in railway wars of Great Britain. There was not even a single dog in the train. The Scotch Express was a passenger train, carrying a high speed train, with force and the whole catastrophe was caused on an October on a pitch dark December morning. Fragmented bodies were scattered here and there, hardly recognizable as human remains, and it is doubtful whether they can be identified. The signalman at Haver Junction admits that he made a mistake in forgetting that two light engines of the Scotch Express were waiting to be switched off. He said he was unable to see them owing to the rain and the storm. On receiving the call for the Scotch Express he signalled it. The drivers of the light engines had recently taken it for themselves and started for Carlisle lockworks. It was not until they saw the light engine that they were aware of their awful danger. They whistled continuously and put on full steam, but the express driver remained on his brakes, but eventually. The signal man had been at Haver Junction some twenty one years. Luckily the bulk of the train had stopped at Lanchester and Lanchester, passengers had stopped at Lanchester and Lanchester, when the collision occurred.

American Railway Collision.

A head-on collision has occurred on the Pennsylvania Railway at Upper Andover, Ohio, in which eight passengers were killed and a number seriously injured.

French Train Wrecked.

Reuter's agent at Paris reports the wrecking of the Bordeaux-Cette express near Bordeaux, the casualties amounting to 3 killed and thirty wounded.

Another French Railway Accident.

Another railway accident has taken place near Montargis. Two men are now altogether dead and thirty injured in the two French railway disasters, the victims being holiday makers.

French Chamber.

The Chamber of Deputies arising from a Socialist motion in favour of the dismissed railwaymen who were prominent in the recent strike, passed by 354 votes to 106 a vote of confidence in the Government, on M. Herriot declaring that a general reinstatement is incompatible with public order.

Rockefeller's Donation.

John D. Rockefeller, the Big Game magnate, has given a fund of $2,000,000 sterling to Chicago for thus bringing his donations to $7,000,000.

Houndsditch Sensation Arrest in Shepherd's Bush.

(Reuter's Special to 'East African Standard') London.

York, one of the wanted persons in the Houndsditch murders, has been arrested at Shepherd's Bush.

LATER—York is apparently not suspected to be one of the murderers, but is alleged to be acquainted with them.

Three more men have been detained in connection with the Houndsditch murders.

The 'Daily Telegraph' states that the three men arrested in connection with the Houndsditch murders, have been identified as respondents of the house rented in the Houndsditch burglary. Two of the men who are said to have been seen carrying their money, however, were charged at Houndsditch on Saturday last.

LATER—The three persons arrested were charged last night on formal evidence only and were committed.

The Irish Question.

Ulsterites Organizing. Incitement to Arm.

The Ulsterites are arranging a second anti-Homestead demonstration in Belfast, while tours of Scotland and England are being organized to emphasize the importance of maintaining the Union.

Mr. C. Craig, M.P. for South Antrim, speaking in the House of Commons, said that the Ulsterists are making every effort to get to work before the new year. The money hitherto devoted to a propaganda in Britain would, he thought, be better spent in Ulster and ammunition. He urged all the hon. members who are connected with the Ulster cause to give their assistance. The hon. member who is engaged in organizing to employ and soldiers to help the Ulster cause, he continued, if they considered such a course.

Peer Creating.

The 'Morning Post' writes that another peerage has been created. It may be expected that the New Year honours will include two or three dukes. Lord Rosebury proposed largely of members of the House of Commons as a first instalment. This is a tactical move and gives a foretaste of what will follow if it is carried. It is stated that the hon. member who will sit down tomorrow will sit down tomorrow with regard to the Veto Resolutions.

Pretoria Pit Disaster.

The rescuers at the Pretoria pit near Bolton have been continually striving to reach the bottom mine, but their efforts have been without avail. All hope is now abandoned. The fire are extinguished but so far no further bodies have been recovered. Relief funds have been organized for the benefit of the widows and orphans of the deceased victims, which are being largely subscribed to as wide sympathy is felt for the sufferers, both at home and abroad.

Many bodies are being taken out of the Pretoria pit near Bolton, where the explosion occurred the other day.

Aviation.

Grief has approached across the Channel from Dover in a dense fog, competing for the honor of the Forest. He reached the Belgian frontier where the plane was loaded at Calais owing to unfavorable winds.

Austria's Navy.

Reuter's agent at Vienna states that the naval programme will be submitted to the Austro-Hungarian delegations on December 20. It provides for the completion of two dreadnoughts which are at present being built at Trieste, at the autumn of 1912, and for two sister ships by 1914. There are also orders for two torpedo boats and four submarines to be built by 1915. The total cost is to be fourteen million pounds sterling.

Sir E. Cassell's Business.

Surprise is being felt in the city of London at the income notice issued by the London Chamber of Commerce and Industry in Broad Street and with the ground year.

Mullah's Power Increasing.

It is reported from Aden that 3,000 Hamoodi Arabials have joined the British forces in the Aden campaign. The friendly relations between the British and the Hamoodi Arabials are increasing. The Hamoodi Arabials are moving northward, his followers are increasing in numbers and his power is increasing.
