Felt Used by Army Officers
GETTING USED TO THEM
 FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.

London, Oct. 2.
 There was a time when we used to make our own felt hats. British soldiers, when returning from the war, threw the roughly made, military style hats away, and bought the fashionable felt hats that they had seen in the streets of London. They were not only better looking, but they were also more comfortable and more durable. The fact is that the British felt hat is a very good hat. It is made of the best quality of wool, and it is woven in a way that makes it very strong and very durable. It is also very comfortable to wear, and it is very stylish. The fact is that the British felt hat is a very good hat, and it is getting used to them.
