LOCAL EXCHANGE LEGISLATION

Treasury and Bank of England Notes to be Legal Tender at Rs. 63 to the Pound

NEW CURRENCY TO BE INTRODUCED

The Secretary has issued the following in regard to official communications on the subject of Local Currency and Exchange:

Instructions have been received from the Secretary of State for the Colonies...

The Legislative will make Imperial Treasury Currency and Bank of England Notes unlimited legal tender at the rate of 63 rupees to the £ sterling.

A special meeting of the Legislative Council will be convened at such a time as possible to pass the necessary Legislation.

Government does not propose to import Treasury Notes and the public will have to make their own arrangements for obtaining them...

The action should to be taken is a temporary measure pending the introduction of a new currency and the eventual establishment of a permanent rate for the rupee in terms of sterling.

BOLSHIEVICS TRIUMPH

Gen. Yeflinski Arrested as a Traitor
VAST ENEMY TURNOVER

London, Jan. 31.—The Times' latest news from Petrograd, that the Cossacks, numbering about 15,000, who are spread out in the railway zone between the front and the rear, are in a most peculiar position owing to the whole army being disintegrated, and the railway line, though under Cossack control, has been changed in impassable places and the soldiers are refusing to do the necessary repairs.

The Bolshevik headquarters at Tver and the Cossack headquarters at Ruzhko on the condition that they would not be allowed to enter the city, which the Bolsheviks have even sworn to let pass out of Ruzhko.

A Polish division numbering 5,000 men and equipped with officers was sent over to the Bolsheviks, while Krasnov's force has been reduced by 2,000 Cossacks, and a large number of his Austro-German soldiers have also joined the Bolsheviks, who are everywhere getting the upper hand, and generally the only sign of opposition is that there is a steady stream of deserters.

Japanese and Bolshevik commandos have met at Ruzhko and arranged to give the former the control of the railway station and the latter the withdrawal of the troops.

After a brief fight on January 21, the Bolsheviks, who were the victors, were to the Bolsheviks, the command was given to the Bolsheviks, the command was given to the Bolsheviks, the command was given to the Bolsheviks.

The French Government has instructed the Allied High Commissioner in Siberia by telegraph to undertake to detain Khabalov's release.

It is reported from Vladivostok that Yeflinski, the anti-Bolshevik General, who was commanding leaving Khabalov with a large force of troops belonging to the north-west army has been arrested.

London, Jan. 30.—A Moscow wireless message says the Soviet Government has sent a note to Poland declaring that extreme elements in the Russian army commanding in the Field to an extent, and some and original war against Russia, and says that there are no conditions which can be made available by negotiation, mediation, and cabinet agreement.

OUR FUTURE ARMY

To be Divided into Regulars and Territorials

London, Jan. 30.—Mr. Churchill is a speech, and the Army will be divided into two formations, the Regular Army and the Territorial Army, both complete and self-sufficient. The Territorials will still be liable voluntarily for three years for selected men, and five years for others.

Training will be the same as before, but the war, with additional facilities for course of instruction. Commanders will be chosen by the House of Commons, and will be liable in the field with distinction. The members of the Territorial Army will be Imperial defence, including one responsibility to defend France and Belgium in the event of a war, and to be ready, in extreme emergency, to be called upon to defend the British Empire.

YUGO-SLAVS

Reply to Ultimatum Sent by Allies

London, Jan. 30.—The Yugoslav Government has replied to the ultimatum sent by the Allies, and says that the Government cannot accept the terms of the ultimatum, and that it will continue to fight for its independence.
