The King's Visit to Berlin.

Jan. 25 .- Sir E. Grey speaking at detream said that after months of gloom his anxiety was relieved and he was satisfied with the Austria-Turkish agreement which naternally improved the prospects of an agreement with the Powers, and or discussion with France and Russia contributed to confidence, friendship and peace.

Also the knowledge that Germany and Italy were genuinely working for peace removed the risk of fric-

He trusted that the visit of the King to Berlin would promote confidence, on the part of Germany, of our good intentions and goodwiii.

Jan. 22.-The Kings suite during his visit to Berlin will include Loru Crewe, Viscount Aithorpe, Genera Grenfelt and Admirai Bosanquet and Sir Charles Hardinge.

The German Fress and public are anticipating King Edward's visit most keenly. The magnificent tête ar ranged by the Municipality has been abandoned by the King's wish and an informal afternoon tea takes its place, thus giving the King an opporunity of conversing with the Councillors on Municipal affairs.
