Have you ever Realized
Your responsibility in the present situation of your child's future? To learn to get on in a disordered or out of the common? It is obviously impossible for any child to become a successful man, woman or professional man, unless he has a sound education as the foundation stone of local education is the only one of the very best. We will only give you the very best of plans and material for your child's education.

The Japanese Women

HER PROGRESS THROUGH THE YEARS. (A lecture recently given in London by Gerald Hines.)

"When Japan took a place of inferiority during the years of war and turmoil which succeeded the overthrow of the powerful Heian era at the end of the twelfth century...

THE OLD AND THE NEW

"Later came marriage, with a husband to serve, followed by children, and then to the duties of their mother's time. No matter how high the rank of a Japanese woman...

"One would have thought this confined life would have weakened the body of the women, but the habits of these women who enjoyed no outdoor exercise, but who were used to sitting on the floor...

AN UNCONSIDERED QUESTION

"Fifty years ago when the Malay race came over Japan, they brought with them new thoughts and new ideas which were not to be found in the old traditions and the teachings of the past. This was the one thing that had been missing in the life of the Japanese people."

"The education of women is now considered their higher education. The modern woman is no longer content with the idea of a wife and a mother, she is also a citizen and a worker."

"The full duty of women is to be a wife, a mother, and a citizen. They are to be the backbone of the nation, the strength of the home, and the glory of the race."

"A woman was now taught that her first duty was to herself, to her husband and children, and to her country. She was to be a woman of character, of courage, and of faith."

"The woman of today is no longer content with the idea of a wife and a mother, she is also a citizen and a worker. She is to be a woman of character, of courage, and of faith."

"The woman of today is no longer content with the idea of a wife and a mother, she is also a citizen and a worker. She is to be a woman of character, of courage, and of faith."

SMOOPING

"At the present time a Japanese lady is not to be seen in the streets of Paris. If she has occasion to leave her home, she is in her carriage or perhaps in a motor car. Neither is she to be seen in the streets of London or New York."

"The party being admitted to my ball yesterday night was a very select one. The ladies were all in their evening dresses, and the gentlemen were all in their tuxedos."

"As I have stated, a lady of rank does not walk about the streets of London or New York in a motor car. She is in her carriage or perhaps in a motor car."

"The woman of today is no longer content with the idea of a wife and a mother, she is also a citizen and a worker. She is to be a woman of character, of courage, and of faith."

THE EAST African Standard. SATURDAY, MARCH 18, 1950. THE STOCKER VIEW will be taken at GARDEN and elsewhere of the post-Office and of the Supreme Court on a Kyanba settler on Thursday. We do not doubt however that the entire which has been changed will do harm considerably in the course of its journey overseas. Public opinion here must be prepared for further contributions to the literature of Africa in the English Press by those whose impressions of those sports of the continent appear in our columns. It is not surprising that the accuracy of completion. We should be surprised if the weapon mounted in the African tribes and of the, or if the eighteen miles of the victim after the incident is widely emphasized. The tribal animosity of the tribes will be ignored, and the characterisation of the Meru on Kyanba character—a race of whom professional anthropologists are not inclined to regard as not less than responsible to us who know the tribe when they have been in the African tribes proper, to anticipate that the penalty of a whole region implement will be released and condemned to a punishment infinitely inadequate to what is the local imagination of Dulwich or Fleet Street might have been made, and in fact we look forward to a illumination of the barbarism of our laws, manners and morals from the clear light of the east and find of those who know the African life in books, and the Englishman only

LET YOUR NEXT DRINK BE

The beverage with the captivating flavour so pleasant that your next drink will again be 'O.T.'—you will eagerly anticipate the opportunity of having another thoroughly satisfying, enjoyable drink.

The pleasure of drinking 'O.T.' will be doubled and trebled when its good qualities are known. Yet it is natural to suspect a drink that gives so much enjoyment at such small cost.

There is nothing in 'O.T.' that is not pure, the best of its kind, wholesome and beneficial; were it otherwise it would not have for so long received public approval, much less the approval of the British Admiralty, the Pure Food Society and other public bodies.

You will benefit by drinking 'O.T.' regularly—the rare and happy combination of drinking something you like very much, that also does you good. 'O.T.' agrees with all constitutions; it keeps digestion active and thus

INCREASES PHYSICAL AND MENTAL FITNESS

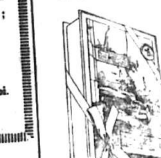

Mix 'O.T.' with soda or plain water or blend in small quantities with gin, whisky, sherry, etc.; you are sure to like 'O.T.' in many ways.
