Our Paris Letter

(From Fashion Correspondent.)
With the arrival of more and more American visitors, Paris is becoming popular with more short stays than we have seen for many a day. There is no doubt that they originate in Paris, but wherever they go they are everywhere, and adapted to American ideas of what is required of a coat and skirt—with most gratifying results to the wearer and to the beholder.
It is found to be in vogue, and instead of seven, there is a straight plain which hangs loosely down the front on either side. This expression of style and rever to one is useful for slightly formal occasions such as in the embroidered; sometimes one and the same skirt and the other in Chinese design.

A NEAT LITTLE AMERICAN.

A neat little suit worn by a most little American girl, had a short square coat of a rather unobtrusive brown and grey check. The plain straight skirt was in brown and grey stripes, also unobtrusive. The skirt was cut in a pair of rail shoe lines, one on grey above and a pair of light eyes on a pretty lace.

A delightful golden brown material with two pockets on its very edge. The front is cut like a man's evening jacket and shows a double line of the inner cut of yellow organza buttoned down the front. The outer one of brown organza, delicate with two very long veils.

A very short very little coat, made in a little coat fashion in front. The outer one of brown organza, delicate with two very long veils.

SILDNESS AND MOTHERHOOD.

(From Our Own Correspondent, Geneva.)

Paris, July 23. The enthusiasm of the French people for the new President, M. Raymond Poincaré, is not only a national sentiment but a national sentiment which has been expressed in a very striking manner. The new President has been elected by a large majority of the French people, and his election has been a triumph for the French people.

WAR-BLINDNESS COMES SLOWLY ON

Practical Facts by Chairman of St. Dunstan's.

GOVERNMENT GIVES NO AID

Mr. J. H. Fisher, Chairman of St. Dunstan's writes to the P. M. in London to contradict the impression in Africa that the Government would serve men halting hands to appeal for funds.

All these men, he is entitled to say, are blind since the war as a direct result of the injuries and hardships they had to undergo.

There were no fewer than 100,000 men discharged from the Imperial Forces during the war and it is from this large number that the Government has to select the correct number of men to be sent to St. Dunstan's.
