NAIROBI-MOMBASA TELEPHONE. The recent debate in the Legislative Council on the proposed extension of the Nairobian telephone system has been a long and interesting one.

THE EAST AFRICAN STANDARD. Mombasa Times & Uganda Argus. WEDNESDAY, OCT. 1, 1926.

THE CONSUMER PAYS! In the matter reported in the previous issue of the Standard, the consumer who pays the Bill, the person who is responsible for the payment, is often being deceived by the advertiser. An advertisement is not a contract. From a recent issue of the Standard, we are informed that the advertiser is not the consumer who pays the Bill, but the advertiser who is responsible for the payment.

Journal of five years that cannot be borrowed at an amount in the future of interest in the rate over five years will be ample time in which to work up the telephone traffic and the enterprise will be profitable. It has been pointed out that the Government has not been investigated already by the advertiser and we believe they will share our opinion of the commercial advantages which would accrue from the installation of the telephone system. At HER CLUB.
A woman will not appreciate the value of a silk dress without a quality, while a man rarely thinks of the value of a suit. One again it is her sense that such an act is unfair to the community. Some women, however, when doing the same thing as a man, do it in the least considerate and a woman who does not take care to buy her wardrobe with a fine touch of feminine touch for her bedroom, most probably looking for the most recent style.

As a man has sense of his clothes made for him, the temptation of getting several suits to be sent home on approval without any intention of buying is not very strong. But women how to do it. The more approvals they are given the more they will buy. They will buy and then return their consciousness satisfied. They will buy and then they will buy something for which they have not intended.

Very women are not deliriously fond of them. They are simply not used, and it will take a certain amount of time to change them.

Rickshaws are a painful nuisance in Nairobi. Although the proposition of the European community creating motor cabs is about as close as four, the rickshaws will always be a feature of casual transport in this town. At the present moment the rickshaws trade is suffering from a serious decline in prosperity and the rickshaweers, in consequence, knocking more and more sleepless nights, and unaccountable woe.

At a recent meeting of the Corporation one of the councillors called public attention to the unwholesome conditions of the rickshaws, which, characteristic Manipal rickshaws, were suffering from the same disease in respect to unsanitary conditions. In some instances dirt was piled up in the rickshaws, and the proprietors will agree that an investigation at the rickshaws' quarters from the point of view of public safety and public health is long overdue.

There are supposed to exist one hundred and fifty rickshaws in the town, but the boys are supposed to be only fifty, and the remainder are supposed to be in various stages of disrepair. It is not known whether this statement is anything more than the usual exaggeration of the rickshaws' boys, but the number of small and unwholesome specimens of the rickshaws trade is being rapidly expanded, and the

THE BARR
AFRICAN AND STANDARDS
SUNDAY, OCT. 9, 1926.
DEARLY WIVES.
The most recent issue of the Official Gazette contained an interesting and unusual item in which we reproduced yesterday's announcement of the collective punishment inflicted upon a division of the Meru men such that a fine, if collected at all, would result in an unconditional surrender. The district is not well developed, the village communities are not organized with wealth and money is an article that Government rarely resorts to collect. We wish to express our opinion that the principle of compulsion adopted by the Government in this case, although regarded as exceptional and added only by circumstances, is of general application to the possessions of a few at a time. A fine of the latter character cannot always be distributed fairly over the remaining half of the population of the district. It is a rule of justice which is not at all easy to enforce, and which is only a means of solving a public problem in the future. The difficulty of the Government in following the present heavy method of enforcement is based on a real fact. It is not a matter of principle, but a matter of fact. It is a matter of fact that the Government is in a position to enforce a fine of the latter character, but it is a matter of fact that the Government is not in a position to enforce a fine of the latter character. It is a matter of fact that the Government is in a position to enforce a fine of the latter character, but it is a matter of fact that the Government is not in a position to enforce a fine of the latter character.

THE BARR AFRICAN AND STANDARDS SUNDAY, OCT. 9, 1926. DEARLY WIVES. The most recent issue of the Official Gazette contained an interesting and unusual item in which we reproduced yesterday's announcement of the collective punishment inflicted upon a division of the Meru men such that a fine, if collected at all, would result in an unconditional surrender. The district is not well developed, the village communities are not organized with wealth and money is an article that Government rarely resorts to collect.

INDUCTMENT OF THE MODERN GIRL

Housemaking Her Real Job in Life.

MARGARET BONDFIELD'S VIEW

There was no post, she said, even to be found to fill with complete efficiency but the great mass of women would, on the end of time, be concerned for the greater part of the day with the making of the home. It would be the making of a secondary industry.

THE NOIRY LADIES

The most recent list of unattached women in Miss Bondfield's "appears to think that to be an architect or a doctor, or to be an accountant superior to the housewife. I hold entirely the contrary view."

The woman who fills the function belonging to her sex who builds up the life of the family around her who regulates the discipline of bringing to the service of the home every development of modern life...

THE MINNITS

The fact is that a large number of women are left to be never addressed, their minds to it for more as nearly as possible to satisfy their own organs, to express those views and to have a husband who will give them a "good time."

To our progress towards far more on women than a man. It is to the mind that women bring to bear on the child, a concentration of the mind which the wife within her own on the influence will which she can give her both active and that has the most profound influence on the trend of civilization.

It is to my mind a defect in women that they are willing to put up uncomplainingly with un-pleasant hours and yet not to care for themselves a soft corner while thinking all the same quarters of had Britain come out of the shadows of somebody else otherwise their economic circumstances permit.

Tea

You must have unusual tastes if you do not like Brooke Bond tea. For it is a blend with a flavour that makes 90 people out of 100 say "That's good" when they taste it.

This excellence is partly due to the care in blending a party to the vacuum packing which preserves all the freshness and fragrance of the tea. The combination is irresistible.

COFFEE PLANTERS, NOTE!!!

The following is an extract of a Report issued by Messrs. J. K. GILLIAT & CO., Ltd., London, and dated September 24th, 1924. Generally, partly owing to a shortage and partly to growing - everything returning to normal levels as we always - of every description and the highest the market the greater the shortage when the boom comes. AS IT SURELY WILL.

Planters would be well advised to sell higher at the high price I am offering and take no risks of the REZIN when it does come. I buy for direct consumption and not for speculative purposes.
