MINISTERS' GUILDHALL SPEECHES.

London, Nov. 11. The customary festive scenes in the history of the London Guildhall were witnessed on the occasion of the Lord Mayor's reception. Outstanding features of the occasion were the presence of the various colonial representatives, the presence of the British Ambassador and British Consul-General, and the presence of the Lord Mayor with hand-clapping had a warm and reverent character, and the presence of the various representatives of the various Dominions was a notable feature of the occasion.

DOMINION PREFERENCE

Mr. Baldwin said the late Government did not seem to have any intention of the imperial Conference, which were not subject to political controversy, but the large questions of policy affecting the Dominion. It was not to be expected by the Government that the Dominion Government was pledged to examine in connection with the Dominion Government.

KENNEL NOTES

Miss Colgate, Oghil, in which all correspondence in connection with Kennel Notes should be addressed to her by her day or night, under the name of the contributor.

There are one or two questions I asked Mr. Walker of the "E.A. Standard" in the last issue. Mr. Walker has now kindly sent me a detailed reply which I propose to publish as it will do much to clarify the matter.

It is of course long after the fact but I have been told that the dog which I mentioned in the last issue has been mated to a female of the same breed.

The obstetric period following the mating is about 60 days, usually between two and twenty days.
