ADVOCATE DESCRIBES THE MEASURES AS DRASTIC AND ALMOST UNTHINKABLE.

TWO COUSIN'S TEST CASE.

A case of great interest to the taxpayers of Nairobi came before the Resident Magistrate in a summary judgment. Mr. James of Messrs. Dalson & Kaplan, the solicitor for the Corporation, appeared for the Corporation, and Mr. Daly and Mr. Finlay for Messrs. A. M. Jennings & Co., the appellants. Mr. Daly explained that Messrs. A. M. Jennings & Co. had been served with an attachment on Feb. 11, 1929. The Court then raised the question of the legality of the Ordinance. Proceedings were taken by the Corporation last year against the appellants for the same rates, when the claim was resisted on the ground that the Ordinance was invalid, without going into the validity of the grounds of defence. It was held that the Ordinance was valid, and the case was dismissed. An amending Ordinance was then passed by the Corporation, which had received the consent of the Legislative Council, and the appellants had been served with a new attachment. The appellants claimed that the Ordinance was invalid, and that the Corporation had failed to establish that the Ordinance was valid. The Court then heard the case, and the appellants were successful in their defence.

MISS WILFRED FRUTHER, L.B.A.M.

MILE OF TROOP, MATIAS

What is the world clamouring for?

The whole world, just now, is calling for tea in ever greater quantities. Next time you are served with an insipid brew, ask yourself: "Is this the sort of tea for which people all over the globe are clamouring?"

If, sometimes, you get a cup of wash-wash instead of a delicious beverage, it ought not to be.

For you can now get good tea, perfectly blended, in a vacuum tin which harbours no stagnant tea-detracting tropical air. Brooke Bond tea which reaches you absolutely fresh in the vacuum tin from which not a vestige of flavour can escape.

Write: Brooke Bond Tea Co. Ltd., P.O. Box 80, New York. Or to the nearest of their representatives: The Tea Merchants, Ltd., 11, Raffles Place, Singapore.
