"Wanted—Practical Help of Shippers."
 (Boston's Special to East African Standard)
 The Londoner was given aboard the Greek on the occasion of her sailing to inaugurate the new service to East Africa. Captain Whaley, who is a partner in the Cable Line, said they intended to put on larger ships to meet the demand. The service had the approval and encouragement of the Empire's Government but in view of the heavy expense entailed in following the new route he regretted they were not subsidised. Through the service provided since the Company, he thought they might be able to do something. He wanted the practical help of merchants and shippers.

(Boston's Special to East African Standard)
 Having mentioned a fortnight's stumpy Mr. Roosevelt stated the question was of importance to a Republican Party. In a fortnight he will attempt to secure victory in the State convention. Not only must he fight the Republican horse but he must also win the support of the voters who will be in the State. The Democratic vote on the issue in the State of New York.

(Boston's Special to East African Standard)
 In a letter to President Taft, the land valuation scheme wrote that it was likely soon to trouble its peace by its own weight and complexity.
 At the land valuation conference which met with him, Lloyd George was not there to discuss the merits of the land tax as there were already six and a half people vying for the position of the land valuation committee. It was not, he said, that the scheme was highly complicated and unworkable. It was so in an unfortunate way. He could not understand how it could be made more intelligible.

The Boma Trading Company Limited, in connection with Messrs. Anderson Bros., will hold a sale of stock at their new yards at Londani, on Friday, September 30th, at 10 a.m. when they will offer for sale a large number of breeding stock, trained and untrained oxen etc. which of which follows complete details:—
 15 cows in calf to pure bred bulls from Purneyland, and 10 B. 200
 100 head Masai from the B. E. A. Hybrid, Light
 An Assorted team, 8 years, in full Government Park condition
 Native Oxen, several tons of Indian oxen, untrained oxen, poultry, etc., etc. etc.
 The sale offers a magnificent opportunity to any military stock breeders for both buyers and sellers. A Large Attendance is Anticipated. Further entries are invited.
Train Arrangements. The opening of Thursday 17th instants, will run through from Nairobi that night. There will be several several carriages which will be out off at Londani and left, this service terminating in the middle of the night. These carriages will be brought down by special service leaving Londani at 4.20 p.m. Saturday October 1st. The carriages will be marked "Londani Cattle Sale."
Hotel Arrangements. Everything will be done in arrears for temporary accommodation at the Londani Hotel site in course of construction. Incoming visitors should write at once to the Manager.

 At the South African Elections there has been returned up to the present 13 Nationalist seats. The Nationalist Party has 12 seats, 5 supported, 2 Labour seats and 1 Independent. It is expected that the Nationalist will have a majority but it will be far more narrow than was supposed.
 A continuation of the election was held at Pietermaritzburg and General Botha in a speech said that though he was defeated he would still do everything in his power to get re-elected.

(Boston's Special to East African Standard)
 There was an exciting scene in the Trades Union Congress at Sheffield when Morris of London pointed out that there was too much talk of the Osborne judgment. The Osborne judgment was not a judgment. He said that the vote of the Trades Union Congress was interrupted by shouting. "No!"
