FOREIGN OFFICE

July 13 . 1909.

Sir:-

With reference to your letter of April 20th, I am directed by Secretary Sir E. Grey to transmit to you, for the information of the Secretary of State for the Colonies, a copy of a despatch from His Majesty's Charge d'Affaires at Adis Ababa, relative to the condition of the Southern Frontier of Abyssinia.

H. Hervey
Jan. 11
Sir E. Grey is disposed to agree to Lord H. Her-vey's proposal to call Mr. Zaphiro to Adis Ababa at the close of the present rainy season, but he fears that much harm may be done by Abyssinian raiders if the frontier is left without a British officer.

The question is one for the decision of the authorities of the East Africa Protectorate, but I am to suggest that before Lord H. Hervey's proposal is approved, the Protectorate Government should be asked whether they can furnish an officer who will take Mr.

Zaphiro's

Under-Secretary of State, Colonial Office.

Zaphiro's place while he is absent at Adis Ababa.

I am,

Sir,

Your most obedient,

humble Servant,

W Langley

Bir,

JUL 5 1909

I have the honour to report that recent despatches from Mr Zaphiro show that there has been no change for the better on the frontier since the passing of Major Gwynn's boundary Commission.

The army under Mitaamari Weldi sent by Mitaamari Haupt-Gioris remained but a few days on the frontier owing to insufficiency of rations; during their stay a number of elephant hunters crossed the line to evade the and continued killing elephants in British territory as before. I have however made no further complaint on this head as according to Major Gwynn's report there seems considerable doubt as to whether these elephants are caught in British or Abyssinian territory, and owing to the rains which began some time ago the hunters will have returned to the highlands.

There have also been further raids in the Rendille country, Etc., Etc.,

country, a number of sheep and goats being taken, and one man killed. Pitaurari Hapti Giorgis had given orders to the Tigrayan chiefs to build houses on the north of the line and station one hundred soldiers there to intercept the raiders and raiders, but his authority at such a distance seems to be little regarded, and the soldiers come and go as they please.

Whenever similar raids are brought to the notice of the Pitaurari, steps of some kind appear to be taken to check the marauders, but no means of an effective or permanent nature are devised, so that after a temporary lull the raids begin again. Only the establishment, long delayed, of a sufficient force under British Officers is likely to produce any real improvement.

I am instructing Mr Maphiro, who is without question stated to be able to remain indefinitely at his post, to come up to Adis Ababa after the rainy season is over about the end of September. He should arrive here about the same time as Major Glynn's report and recommendations on the line, and his presence would be most useful when the arguments have to be laid before the Abyssinian Government. He will also be able to bring such definite proofs against the minor chiefs who are responsible for raiding

raiding as may be required to secure their punishment.

A small guard would be left at Moyale consisting of the most reliable men he can find for the purpose.

Should this not meet with your approval, I would ask that instructions to the contrary may be telegraphed to me in time to prevent his leaving his post.

I have the honour to be, with the highest respect,

Sir,

Your most obedient, humble servant,

J. Herbert Hervey
