It does not look as if much importance is attached to the rumors, but if the Mullah should succeed in stirring up the Somalis in the Jubba, it might be a serious business for the E.A.P.

We should probably have heard further news by cable if there had been any thing serious in this, at the same time there is always the chance of trouble in the Jubba, & we must

No. 5

Sir,

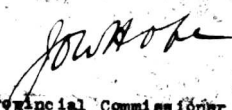

I have the honour to inform you that I have received a letter from Abdurehman Mursal, in which he informs me that an uncle of Mohamed Abdulla, named Amir bin Mohamed, is on his way down to this country preaching on behalf of the Mullah and saying that he has now become friend with the Abyssinian Government.

I have written to Abdurehman Mursal that I am sure the latter statement is not true and that he had better tell the people of Geydu so.

I have the honour to be

Sir

Your most obedient servant

Ag Provincial Commissioner

The Secretary

to the Administration

Nairobi.
