Sir,

I have the honour to report that Sergeant Instructor W.C. Fitzgerald of the Police at Kiambu who was granted 7 days leave by the late I.C.P. from the first instance for the purpose of visiting Mombasa to see his brother who was passing through to Natal has not returned to duty. It is believed that he has probably left for Lamu or India by the S.S. "Bundesrath" which sailed from here on the 2nd instant. He has also taken with him some Government property, such as his kit, revolver etc.

Sergeant Fitzgerald was on a three years' agreement and joined this Force on the 26th August 1947.

I have etc. etc. etc.
