Native Labour.

Sends report, which has been prepared at the request of Prof. Dunstan, for transmission to J.B. Keo for the info. of the International Congress on Tropical Agriculture & Col. Development to be held at Brussels this year.

This is an extraordinary proceeding on the part of Prof. Dunstan. I think that he should be called upon ~~for~~ for an explanation of his action in communicating direct with the local authorities on an important question of this kind. I understand that the General Govt. are dealing with certain relations to the Empress, & this had better go to them.

native labour is not purely scientific or commercial, but is closely connected with political politics. But scientific men are notoriously thick on both their theoretical and official capacities, and, whatever may be thought of the tact and taste displayed by Professor Dunstan in failing to adopt the natural course of applying to this Office, it was naturally due in the case of the Geological Survey, I think that he has kept within the technical ground of propriety.

The point is not likely to be obvious to Governor and I think it will be more effective to point out the stupidity of the method adopted than to discuss the question of official propriety.

When I first spoke to Mr. Fieldes about this, and before I had seen the papers and particularly the British Museum paper, my feeling was to write to the Managing Committee and ask them to pull Professor Dunstan up. But Mr. Green's explanation puts a different complexion upon the matter. The most we can now say is that Professor Dunstan showed considerable want of judgment. (I am afraid he is very wanting in this quality) in not asking this department to arrange for the reports which he wanted. He ought also to have been particularly careful in writing from the Imperial Institute or at any rate in making it quite clear that he was not writing in an official capacity. No doubt all the Governors would take the letter as coming from the Institute.

All we can do I think is to write to Professor Dunstan himself when he returns and point out that in a matter of this sort he would have been much better advised to write to the Colonial Office; he would be aware that so far as possible the Secretary of State would assist him in obtaining the information he wanted, and that the action he took was certainly liable to misrepresentation and has produced queries on the part of certain Governments.

As regards the possibility of similar applications being made by somebody quite unconnected with the Colonial Office, I can only say that I hope our Governors would have the sense not to prepare a special report upon a highly controversial question without reference to the Secretary of State. In fact I think the action taken both by Sir E. Hodgson and Sir Percy Girouard leads one to believe that this would be so. We may leave that part of the question alone.

I fear I don't quite agree. 21 May To my mind the fact that Prof. Dunstan is a full Employment Commissioner certainly. He has no business until directed otherwise if he had been an outside his proper course when he took the S.Y.C. written to info - though in last case he certainly have placed ignorance as a cause for his ineffective procedure.

It seems to me best as a matter of <sup>order</sup> ~~order~~ discipline to leave the S.Y.C. written to ~~and~~ <sup>to</sup> inform him that the S.Y.C. does no proceeding with an abnormal
