Dr. G. Fiddes

He cannot see me ~~until~~ in July or Aug. & later on, he had some talk with you & me on a few of the points raised in the memo - but it did not seem to be a case in which anything could be done without the necessary that Mr Amcotts had given an opportunity of replacing in terms that it appeared inadvisable to suppress any definite opinion on matters requiring so much local knowledge. Hope a full report had been received from the field but he had himself looked into

CONFIDENTIAL No. 169

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
Nairobi, Kenya,
BRITISH EAST AFRICA.

29th November 1913.

Sir,

27588
I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Confidential despatch of September 9th, 1913, from which I learn that Mr Ainsworth has followed my suggestion that he should seek opportunity of discussing with the Colonial Office the proposals embodied in a series of memoranda prepared by himself on the subject of Native Administration.

2. The questions for consideration are of so comprehensive a nature that I find my personal knowledge of the subject insufficient to justify me in attempting to outline a policy for the future. I imagine that Mr Ainsworth may have been favoured with an expression of the views of the Colonial Office regarding some or all of the points taken in his memoranda, and I desire to receive from him an account of his interviews, as well as his assistance in the solution of the questions awaiting settlement, before venturing to formulate any definite opinion.

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE

LEWIS HARCOURT, B.C., SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES, DOWNING STREET, LONDON, S.W.

opinion.

5. I therefore propose to await Mr Alneworth's return and then to personally investigate the whole subject with him. In the meantime it is my intention to tour the North Kavirondo country in February next when I hope to have opportunity of observing for myself the conditions which have been attained by this progressive tribe.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your humble, obedient servant,

H. G. G. G.

of the 24th of Nov and to inform you that Mr.
Ainsworth was given

explaining his views on the subject of Rational Administration
during his leave of absence in this country
but it appeared inadvisable
to express any opinion

on matters requiring so much local knowledge
before you had yourself
looked into and reported on the subject.

2. I shall therefore await with interest a further communication
from you after you
