Report arrangements which will ensure the continual presence of a medical officer within reasonable distance

Mr. G. Fisher

Ack. + express satisfaction?

Lord Emmott will like to see this, as the question of the medical arrangements in the N. F. Dist. was brought up in the recent debate in the H. of C. In the course of the debate someone asked whether Marsabit had been abandoned - see para. 5.

Pr. 20.5.14

This seems satisfactory & the Dep. did well to advise me that Marsabit might be abandoned. I made that clear in my speech

No.137. April 20th. Following telegram has been received from Graham. Begin. Fifteenth report from Soames from Garrebahare dated 11th says on 8th encountered Ali Dera village and killed in action four wounded two have captured one rifle and bandolier 115 camels 97 cattle 630 goats and sheep all which subsequently killed. Purpose leaving on 12th for Hariholi. Ali Dera now come in and Soames has given them terms of peace. Our most trustworthy Illaloe says Ahmed Wet continually asking Farah Ogas to intercede for peace (?) so Illaloes have been sent to Ahmed Wet to bring thirty rifles and twenty ponies as guarantee on receipt of which terms of peace will be discussed. Orders have been given to Soames in accordance with suggestion of Governor and Commander in Chief with reference to payment of fine after close of military operations. Doubt whether Shire Jema Section come in. Consider 4th Battalion, King's African Rifles Companies can return very shortly as Aulihan situation slowly improving doubtless due to surrender of Marshah and will send orders to Ward ^{in return of} (aid Soames and) on learning opinion of situation. Telegram ends.
