I am leaving this month for Portugal, East Africa with my husband to settle out & have 3 very valuable pedigree stallions which I am very anxious to take out with me. They have never been in any part of this country affected by Rabies, or the muzzling order. If it is necessary to have one, will you kindly grant me a permit to take them with me. I believe the only route available is via Barcelona, where we have to change ship & probably have to wait a few days before

I am leaving this month for Puerto Rico with my husband to settle out & have 3 very valuable pedigree
+ terriers which I am very anxious take out with me. They have never in any part of this country affected Rabies, or the muzzling order. If it necessary to have one, will you kindly grant me a permit to take
route available is via Seaborne, where

going on. I suppose the dogs would have to be quarantined at Deerbar until the boat on to Mombasa I should be extremely grateful you will give me all necessary permits to enable them to go whole way with me.

Yours faithfully
