IMPROVEMENT IN STERLING Rate of deficit drops STATEMENT BY CHANCELLOR IN HOUSE OF COMMONS

The sterling area's rate of gold and dollar deficit dropped in March by 71 million dollars, Mr. Richard Butler, Chancellor of the Exchequer, announced in the House of Commons yesterday.

In January it had been 299 million dollars and in February 289 million dollars.

The total deficit for the first quarter of the year was 678 million dollars, a deficit of 940 million dollars of the fourth quarter of last year, (which included revaluations of the United States and Canada).

Other members of the European Payments Union.

Finally, he said Britain received 20 million dollars from the recent Anglo-American conference in London.

A considerable part of all these items was therefore returning to character.

Another cheer

Mr. Butler again cheered when he announced that the rate of deficit in sterling and dollar in March had fallen to 71 million dollars from 299 million in January.

He said it was the lowest rate since the revaluation of the pound in 1949.

He added that the deficit in sterling and dollar in March was 71 million dollars, compared with 299 million in January.

He said that the deficit in sterling and dollar in March was 71 million dollars, compared with 299 million in January.

Reasons

Mr. Butler said that the reasons for the fall in the deficit were:

- 1. A fall in the rate of exchange of the pound against the dollar.
- 2. A fall in the rate of exchange of the pound against the franc.
- 3. A fall in the rate of exchange of the pound against the guilder.
- 4. A fall in the rate of exchange of the pound against the mark.
- 5. A fall in the rate of exchange of the pound against the yen.

Not sinister

Mr. Butler said that the fall in the deficit was not sinister.

He said that the fall in the deficit was due to a combination of factors, including a fall in the rate of exchange of the pound against the dollar and a fall in the rate of exchange of the pound against the franc.

TEAL WINS NATIONAL ON THE RUN-IN

Fine double for jockey and trainer

STEEPLECHASE jockey Arthur Thompson and trainer Neville Crump shared a second Grand National victory in four years when the former piloted Harry Lane's Teal, a 10-year-old son of Bimbo, with 10 s. 12.3 on his back, to victory in the famous Aintree event on Saturday.

Teal was a well-bred steeplechaser and his owner, Mrs. M. J. Lane, had bought him from the late Mr. Harry Lane's old stable at Bimbo, with 10 s. 12.3 on his back, to victory in the famous Aintree event on Saturday.

£32,750,000 for Railways

BILL SHOWS HOW MONEY WOULD BE ALLOCATED

WHEN the Central Legislative Assembly meets in Nairobi this month, approval will be sought for the proposed £32,750,000 loan to finance future developments in the East African Railways and Harbours Administration.

The Bill, which will authorize the raising of the loan, was published yesterday.

The money—which can be raised outside the London market if necessary—is allocated as follows:

£10,000,000	for the construction of new railways and harbours
£10,000,000	for the reconstruction of existing railways and harbours
£10,000,000	for the purchase of rolling stock
£10,000,000	for the purchase of land and buildings
£10,000,000	for the purchase of equipment
£10,000,000	for the purchase of materials
£10,000,000	for the purchase of services
£10,000,000	for the purchase of other items

Ten more steps for French Budget

THE French Prime Minister, Mr. Antoine Pinay, has expressed confidence that he will today open the Assembly Budget through the Conference of Ministers.

Mr. Pinay, a moderate Conservative, and third Premier to put the country's 1952 Budget through Parliament. He will win all 10,000 votes of the right-wing majority in the Assembly.

His optimism, he said, is time the country's confidence in the Government.

CHINESE MYSTIFY ALLIES

Meeting lasts only six minutes

UNITED NATIONS armistice negotiators at Panmunjom came away from another abrupt meeting yesterday saying that they were mystified by the Communist attitude.

The armistice meeting lasted less than an hour.

A United Nations spokesman said that the Communist negotiators had expressed their surprise that when the meeting opened he thought the Communists intended to "outwit" him in silence.

He opened the talks after some minutes silence by saying: "Do you have anything to say?"

The Chinese Communist Major-General Hsieh Fang replied: "Nothing."

SORE BLOW TO UNITED'S HOPES

Top honours may elude them again THE appearance of Manchester United's goal-scoring left-wing at Hampden on Saturday, and the admission by Manchester that they must effect their championship chances seriously.

United, four times runner-up in the three post-war seasons, may yet find themselves in the shadow of the highest honour for they only lead Arsenal on goal average, with the latter having the game in hand. One point behind Arsenal comes Everton.

At the bottom of the table Fulham seem doomed, but their return to Division One, and their position at the moment, are their most likely opportunity to be promoted.

Apparently doomed Nottingham Forest have just been relegated to Division Two, while Reading and Brighton have also been relegated to Division Two.

NOMINATIONS ON MAY 7 Council dissolves next week

ELECTIONS AT END OF MAY AND EARLY IN JUNE

Kenya will go to the polls at the end of May and beginning of June—the exact dates are not yet announced—to elect the new Legislative Council. Sir Philip Mitchell, the Colony's Governor, revealed this news when he announced Nominations Day for candidates to be held on Wednesday, May 7.

Sir Philip made the statement in the Memorial Hall, Nakuru, where the present Council had finished its business, with the passing into law of the Local Government (County Councils) Bill.

The new Council will meet for the first time on June 12. Mr. Mitchell will open the Council by a speech, after which the first election will be held. The Council will then go on to a week of business before returning to office on June 12.

BRITAIN IN FEDERATE EUROPE Lord Salisbury visualises risks

In a broadcast over the B.B.C. European wave-length, Lord Salisbury, Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations, declared that a merger of Britain into a European Federation would be the end of the Commonwealth.

"It would be for Britain the greatest of disasters, both as a matter of principle and as a matter of fact," he said. "It would be much less for the rest of the world."

Federation would necessarily mean that Britain would lose her voice in the association of independent nations both in Europe and in the Commonwealth. "The only way to keep Britain in the Commonwealth would be to have an independent voice in the association of independent nations both in Europe and in the Commonwealth. That would be to take us out of the Commonwealth."

Lord Salisbury also visualised risks to the Commonwealth if it were to be a member of a European Federation. "It would be to take us out of the Commonwealth," he said. "It would be to take us out of the Commonwealth."

CLAIM FOR NEW WHEAT PRICE Canadians want more per bushel

CANADA will lead the battle for a higher wheat price when the International Wheat Council meets in London on April 17 to discuss the extension of the international wheat agreement.

Present indications point to Britain leading the striving to keep prices where the British and Canadian delegations would like to see them. The Canadian delegation is asking for a price increase of 15 cents (60 cents) a bushel in the United States and 10 cents (40 cents) a bushel in the United Kingdom.

Canadian farmer organizations claim that production costs have risen sharply since the price was fixed four years ago. Canada is a major producer of wheat and exports over 100,000,000 bushels a year.

AMERICA STOPS STEEL EXPORTS Precaution against strike by 700,000

THE United States Government has suspended all exports of steel to Britain and other countries because of the wages strike of 700,000 steelworkers, scheduled to start today.

The order, which was issued by the National Production Authority, also froze all supplies to American firms making motor cars, and other civilian goods.

The American Government is reported to be preparing measures to take over the steel industry, if necessary, to prevent damage to the country's defence efforts.

Under an agreement negotiated in January by Mr. Churchill Britain was promised one million tons of American steel in exchange for 30,000 tons of Malayan tin worth $600,000. The steel has already been shipped.

DIPLOMATIC ACTIVITY IN CAIRO

AMEMBASSADEES see the Premier

Intense diplomatic activity in Cairo gives rise to firm rumours that the Anglo-Egyptian talks are passing through a delicate phase. The British Ambassador, Sir Ralph Stevenson, and the Ambassador of the United States, Mr. Jefferson Caffery, have both had fairly long interviews with the Egyptian Premier.

Hilly Pasha had three-hour interviews with the British Ambassador shortly before Mr. Caffery was received. Sir Ralph told reporters: "We are still exchanging views—also exploring points of view," which was corroborated by the Egyptian Minister, Hassan Pasha, who accompanied Sir Ralph.

Motion opposes Government decision

The British Government yesterday faced a minor revolt among its own Parliamentary back-benchers over the textiles crisis.

Against Government policy, a group of Conservative M.P.s has insisted on passing forward a motion demanding the withdrawal of the Purchase Tax from clothing.

The group, led by a powerful agent in the Party, Mr. Ralph Ashton, former director of the Textiles Federation, and Mr. Ernest Thorneycroft, secretary of the United Textiles Federation, complained the order would mean a loss of 150 million in the production of the industry.

OPINION DIVIDED ON DRAFT CONSTITUTION

Reactions of Sudan parties
The draft constitution providing the Sudan with internal self-government, proposed by Britain, has been met with mixed reception by Sudanese political parties. The draft constitution, prepared by the British Government, is a 100-page document which provides for a 100-member National Assembly. It also provides for a 100-member Council of Ministers. Exhibition MASS PUNISHMENT OF MALAYAN VILLAGERS

Discussion in House of Lords

Collective punishment, as a method of impressing upon villagers that they could not with impunity commit any of the crimes which in Malaya was defined by Lord Salisbury, Secretary of State for Commonwealth Relations during a discussion in the House of Lords.

Lord Salisbury supported the view that collective punishment imposed on the people of Tanganyika by Communist terrorists who killed twelve British officers and a British soldier.

He said the High Commissioner was generally not in favour of collective punishment, but that it was necessary to impose it in some cases to bring about a general policy.

Plan to halt spread of Indian desert

Indian deserters work to halt the "creeching desert" in the Congo Valley and elsewhere

Completion of the entire forest belt is likely to cost about 200 million shillings.

One of the main reasons for the desertion of Indian soldiers in the Congo Valley and elsewhere is the lack of discipline and the spread of the "creeching desert" in the Congo Valley and elsewhere.

It is estimated from the total of the Indian desertion that the Congo Valley and elsewhere is the largest area of desertion in the world.

Big dividends

Referring to the Kenya public works programme, the Minister of State for the Colonies said that the Government was not in favour of collective punishment.

Arguments

Before it was applied, he continued, it deserved the most careful consideration.

Village slides towards river

A slow but relentless slide towards the river has been reported in the Congo Valley and elsewhere.

15,000 years ago...

Three hundred skeletons of prehistoric man have been found in the Congo Valley and elsewhere.

Improved standards

Law in his speech, Mr. Birt said that the Government was not in favour of collective punishment.

Conclusion

He concluded, "With good will and mutual respect, we can build a better world for ourselves and for our children."

Three years' jail for shop-breaking

A young Indian who was recently found guilty of shop-breaking was sentenced to three years' imprisonment.

This is NOT ORDINARY P.K.-1..

and whilst making this sweeping statement, we shall go so far as to say that there is nothing to beat it in its class in East Africa. Specially designed for the grueling conditions of Australia and this country, the Morris Commercial 18 cwt pick-up is something of which to be proud. Preliminaries over, we pass now to plain facts. Its frame and components are of the 30 cwt truck—more strength than will ever be needed! Carrying capacity is a maximum load of 18 cwt with a load space of 70 cu. ft.—width 52", length 96", depth 22"—a wealth of space! The engine, 42 b.h.p. four-cylinder O.H.V. flexibly mounted gives ample power with cruising speed of between 45 and 50 m.p.h. and a guaranteed petrol consumption of 20 m.p.g. under normal operating conditions! Its stump is of pressed steel with a ground clearance of 13". Lowest point on the vehicle is rear axle—ground clearance 7". The driving cab is comfortably cushioned with Dunlopigo. Availability of this truly fine vehicle primer painted almost immediate.

ARSENAL MAY GAIN DOUBLE

A feat best accomplished in 1897

ARSENAL have been made favourites to achieve a feat which has eluded all clubs sides in England for over half a century—that is, to win the FA Cup and the League championship in the same season.

The Cup-England, which Arsenal won in 1897, was then accomplished in the same season as the League title. Arsenal's programme includes a double in 1905, when they were successful in both the Cup and the League.

At present Arsenal are in a position to do so. They have won the Cup and the League in the same season in 1905 and 1917. West Bromwich Albion won both in 1914, and Arsenal were runners-up in both in 1925. Arsenal were runners-up in both in 1925. Arsenal were runners-up in both in 1925.

Exports being reviewed

NEED FOR MORE PRODUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT

By the Editor. Kenya's fight along with Britain and the Commonwealth to defend sterling is developing and the strategy for the Colony, with its exports and ways expedient to direct export to save and earn hard currency.

The increase of exports being mapped out to meet the plan's objective. Bold and drastic actions are not to be expected. Nor is a blitzkrieg campaign to change the situation overnight.

Instead the fight to save the £ will be a campaign of small steady engagements— in themselves not winning over sterling's actions, but in the aggregate, along with the sterling's salvation.

The Government is adamant in its belief that Kenya's contribution to the battle will not be to accept any form of accepting exports.

Some officials want to increase exports in every way possible, but the Government is adamant in its belief that Kenya's contribution to the battle will not be to accept any form of accepting exports.

Enhanced prices. Certain local lines of agriculture are being encouraged. The first and foremost is the increase of production of coffee, tea, sisal, and other export crops.

A Perfect Finish

Appearance adds variety to articles in everyday use but never a substitute for intrinsic quality. For instance, in the manufacture of household electrical appliances, A.E.C.'s Sodium Silicochrome is an important electrolytic factor towards obtaining the high quality finish.

A Palace In Zanzibar Was In Touch With The World

FROM an old palace in Zanzibar, two Kenya radio enthusiasts, South African and an American, were talking to nearly 100 fellow enthusiasts in Kenya. This was the first time that an amateur radio station had been established in Zanzibar. The station, which is known as ZK1ZB, is being operated by the two enthusiasts, who are both well-known in the amateur radio circles of their respective countries. The station was set up in the old palace, which is now a museum. The two enthusiasts, Mr. J. K. Mwangi and Mr. J. M. Mwangi, are both well-known in the amateur radio circles of their respective countries. The station was set up in the old palace, which is now a museum. The two enthusiasts, Mr. J. K. AN INVESTURE AT THE PALACE

Our London Fashion Correspondent, Elsie M. Sanders, gives the world of fashion long enough to give us glimpses of an Investiture at Buckingham Palace...

NOWHERE in the world would you see such a ceremony as took place in London this week. It was the investiture at Buckingham Palace when long queues of people moved slowly up the red-carpeted staircase to the Throne Room...

The surroundings were regal and luxurious, the gentlemen were that of a large family gathering. Everyone from the footman of the carriage entrance to the dignified Gentlemen of the Household who directed the crowd...

WHAT HYPNOTISM CAN DO FOR US

By Jack Greenleaf

MAYBE no mistake, hypnosis is now a matter of vital importance affecting nearly everyone. This is what the President of the British Society of Medical Hypnotists has to say about its future.

Statistics show that up to 5 per cent of people can be hypnotized and that the benefits from its use for a wide variety of ailments.

Hypnotism can help in cases of multiple sclerosis, rheumatoid arthritis, blood pressure, skin diseases, nervousness, and other ailments. It is also used to relieve pain during operations and to cure nervousness and other ailments without having the patient under any form of anaesthesia.

It can be used to cure a wide variety of ailments, such as nervousness, insomnia, and other ailments. It can be used to cure a wide variety of ailments, such as nervousness, insomnia, and other ailments.

WHEN we consider that a war, which is only a growth, can be made to disappear by suggestion, we are led to believe that it may be possible to influence other people.

It is only a possibility, and it is only a possibility, and it is only a possibility. It is only a possibility, and it is only a possibility, and it is only a possibility.

Eventide Cottages

To the Editor: "A. A. Standard"

Sir—The Eventide Cottage scheme, operated by the Salvation Army of Kenya, is an admirable means of providing housing for the poor in East Africa. It is a commendable scheme, and it is gratifying to see that it is being carried out in such a thorough and efficient manner.

Eventide Cottage Scheme appeals for £10,000

THESE pictures tell better than in words, the story of comfort, security and happiness in old age that is represented by the Eventide Cottage Scheme, operated by the Salvation Army at Kabete. The scheme is urgently in need of completion and today an appeal is launched for £10,000 for this purpose. It was almost 25 years ago in a small rented house off Ngara Road, Nairobi, that the Salvation Army started work in the days of depression and many families and individuals, passing through a period of temporary unhappiness, were helped in making of new starts in life.

It was the family for instance, with father unemployed, wife and children starving, and all trying to find out how they could get on the bare floor of an empty bungalow. That family passed out of the hostel, as did many others, to a new life, a happier home and a sense of security. And what started could be told of individual men and women who passed through the hostel. Some had to find positions in community life which they held today, others to new fields in Africa or Britain. No one could do that make good, but the stories of those who did, justify to the full the practical sympathy for those who are interested in old age.

But it is not assumed that all who are old are under the hostel roof were unfortunate people. There were those who did support themselves, and some who were not a few elderly people deserving of special care. From those small beginnings, the hostel grew into more comfortable, somewhat ancient and ill-equipped property in the same area. It had, through the generosity of interested friends throughout East Africa, a good stock of buildings, providing accommodation for elderly people, who opened by the Government, Pungu Mbaroti, at Kabete and thus saved The Army's Eventide Homes for aged East Africa Residents. In all, six cottages have already been erected, providing accommodation for a total of 12 people, married or single.

These cottages are situated in delightful surroundings and within easy reach of Nairobi. Each cottage is furnished and these accommodations may bring their own valued knick-knacks, such as to give express individual taste and to make that familiar atmosphere of "home" leaves none.

The old folk have their own dining rooms and lounge. Individual attention is given to time of visitors, and, when health permits and the climate permits, some in the hot of garden to provide joy and recreation.

The Salvation Army in Great Britain was the Pioneer Voluntary Society was the first residential homes for old age people, and it is still growing since life in East Africa is still growing since life in a developing world has many difficulties which press heavily upon the aged. The scheme is urgently needed and Comrades in East Africa, Colonial Commander for The Salvation Army in East Africa, and a letter on the opposite page appeals for the sum of £10,000 to complete the scheme.

The photographs of the scheme are by A. K. F. N. N. N.

TRAVELLING IN THE Luo country, as it fringes the Kavirondo Gulf of Lake Victoria, sprawled westerly round the head of the lake and traversed by two big rivers. Indisputably, it cannot help not being two things about the Luo population. First, that this is mainly a happy people of vigorous, sturdy physique, and secondly, that they are a clean and colorful people, cheerful and full of life.

Land of swamps

It is a poor country, taken as a whole, and one of the poorest in the world. It is a land of swamps, and the vegetation is very poor. It is a land of swamps, and the vegetation is very poor. It is a land of swamps, and the vegetation is very poor.

Markets in Nyanza are being modernized, with permanent buildings of stone and cement roofs. Some, now under way, are a mark of progressive improvement.

It is in the further future, however, that the Luo will have a real problem when any of their lands are to be developed.

Grass strips

It is in an adjacent method in Kenya, the Belgian Congo, and the French Congo, where grass strips in the Luo country, where there is a hill and the wind and rain are so violent, that the soil is washed away.

Money, value and order

Money, value and order are the three essential factors in the Luo country, where there is a hill and the wind and rain are so violent, that the soil is washed away.

THE THINGS THEY SAY...

being quotations from B.C.C. talks

UNSKILLED HAND

"The first step is to get men to work for their own benefit, and not for the benefit of others."

POPULAR PARROTS

"A parrot has always been a popular bird in the Luo country, where there is a hill and the wind and rain are so violent, that the soil is washed away."

NOT ENGAGE GIRLS

"There is a lot of fat better than a girl to marry in the Luo country, where there is a hill and the wind and rain are so violent, that the soil is washed away."

WAND O BE A COURIER?

"I was interviewed by a travel agent, and given a list of things to take with me on my trip to the Luo country, where there is a hill and the wind and rain are so violent, that the soil is washed away."

Hand in hand

AGRICULTURE and fishing

AGRICULTURE and fishing are the two main occupations of the Luo people. They are a happy and contented people, and they are a clean and colorful people, cheerful and full of life.

Walking along the lake-shore

Walking along the lake-shore at Nairobi, one notices the many small islands of people who are engaged in agriculture and fishing.

Notably known, or can tell

Notably known, or can tell the people who are engaged in agriculture and fishing.

Maybe in past centuries

Maybe in past centuries, before the British came, the Luo people were a happy and contented people.

Outstanding leader

FOUND that the Tribunaux are respected, I do not doubt whether there is any other leader in the Luo country, where there is a hill and the wind and rain are so violent, that the soil is washed away.
