EAST AFRICA ASSEMBLY DEBATE ON NEED FOR INQUIRY INTO MOMBASA

Committee to investigate delays

By Sir James D. Stewart

OPINIONS that investigations by a committee of inquiry into delays of goods at Mombasa was unlikely to produce any solution to the problems of the port but that it might attract public concern, were expressed during the debate of the East Africa Central Legislative Assembly on the East African Standard yesterday. The committee, as reported in the East African Standard yesterday, will consider the report of the Conference of Experts which was held at Mombasa on February 11 and 12, consider long and short term proposals for improving transport facilities in East Africa and particularly at Mombasa, and investigate delays of goods ascribed through Mombasa.

Mr. C. C. Spencer (Uganda) said that after a good deal of anxious thought, he had decided to support the motion which was proposed by Mr. E. A. Vasey (Kenya)—although rather hesitantly. He did so not because he felt it necessary or expedient to support a motion which was intended to produce a committee of inquiry. He was, however, under the impression that the committee would be able to deal with the problems of the port in a way which would be satisfactory to all concerned.

Imports to Kenya of controlled goods

Limiting about LICENCES

Imports to Kenya of controlled goods will be restricted to the minimum necessary to meet the requirements of the country's economy, it is understood from a report issued by the Kenya Industrial Development Corporation (KIDC) on the subject of the new licence system for imports of controlled goods.

The KIDC report states that the new licence system will be based on three months' supply of the goods to be imported. It is not intended to restrict the quantity of goods imported, but to ensure that the country's economy is not overburdened by a large quantity of goods which it is unable to absorb.

The KIDC report also states that the new licence system will be based on the principle of self-sufficiency. It is intended to ensure that the country's economy is able to meet its own requirements for goods, and that it is not dependent on foreign supplies.

The KIDC report also states that the new licence system will be based on the principle of priority. It is intended to ensure that the country's economy is able to meet its most urgent requirements for goods, and that it is not dependent on foreign supplies.

STORY OF A STRUGGLE FOR SURVIVAL

Leyton fight to Wembley final

A CLUB which has nearly won out of football will be appearing in the F.A. Amateur Cup Final at Wembley this afternoon.

Behind the success of the Athenian League club Leyton, who meet Walthamstow Avenue, lies a story of a grim fight for survival.

At the end of the season, following complaints from other clubs, the Athenian League ruled that Leyton should not be used for matches staged under their jurisdiction. As a result, Leyton were forced to play all their League games away from home and not unacceptably finished the season losing in the table but what was even more important, the club was deprived of home game money.

Next time Cup ties, they did not occur before their supporters.

There was talk during the season of disbanding the Athenian League, but Leyton managed to improve to the position which met with League approval and Leyton decided to carry on.

Magnificent season.

The decision to re-organize the Athenian League, forced Leyton to go on, and the Amateur Cup Leyton have had a magnificent season. They reached the second round, the apex of the professional competition before being eliminated. Including one almost unbeaten run, they fought Walthamstow to the limit to retain their title.

With all these cup commitments, Leyton were fortunate to have been considered for the Athenian League. They were fortunate in providing the Athenian League with a magnificent season.

In praise of BOBBY LOCKE HAS HIS EYE ON BRITISH OPEN

—and that of America as well

BOBBY LOCKE, South African golf champion, has one eye on the moment when he will be British Open golf champion from the holder, Max Faulstich. Locke won the title in 1940 and 1939.

At present Locke is engaged in the United States tournament circuit but he will be seen again on British courses midway through the summer.

Max Faulstich, the Australian, who is the United States champion, has been seen in London. One better golf shot to 6200 last, the odds were then cut back to 5-1.

Locke's victory in 1940 was a magnificent feat. He had won the title in 1939 and 1938, and he was again successful this year. He had a record of a club having won the title in 1939 and 1938, and he was again successful this year.

From the Beginning

The name of EDISWAN perpetuates the name of the two famous men who, after the Edison and Swan companies, were the first to produce the electric lamp. It was in 1878 that the two companies merged to form the Edison and Swan Electric Lamp Company. The name EDISWAN was chosen to honor both inventors.

ECONOMIC SURVEY EMPHASISES NEED FOR SPECIFIC ACTION

Special cable to the "East African Standard"
 London, Saturday. The publication of the Government's Economic Survey for 1952 has little to say that was already known about the problems facing this country and the course we must pursue in order to overcome them. As was only to be expected, the Survey dwells at some length on the most difficult problem of all—the serious shortage of payments staffs which developed with such alarming speed in the second half of last year. But in dealing with this most important problem, it adds little or nothing to previous statements on the subject by the Chancellor of the Exchequer. In general however, the Survey is a lucid document. It emphasises more clearly than ever before that the country's main problem is not a shortage of funds but a shortage of payments staffs. It also points out that the Government's present policy is to deal with the problem by increasing the number of payments staffs rather than by increasing the amount of funds available. This is a sensible policy, and it is to be hoped that the Government will continue to pursue it with determination. The Survey also points out that the country's foreign exchange reserves are low, and that this is a serious problem. It suggests that the Government should take steps to increase these reserves, and that this should be done by increasing the amount of funds available for export. This is also a sensible suggestion, and it is to be hoped that the Government will take it into consideration.

THE COMMUNISTS MAKE LITTLE HEADWAY IN BRITAIN

It is a reflection on the position of the Communist Party in Great Britain that its annual conference, held at the Grosvenor Hotel during the Easter holidays, barely reached the headlines of the Public Health News. They are not "flashy" vehicles. They are built for a job. Each model has its own particular use. All VWs give the man who cannot afford to buy or run an off-higher power de luxe vehicle an opportunity of owning transport exactly capable of giving him the comfort, dependability and sturdiness he would expect of a purchase of double the price. Finish of these vehicles is not by any means spotty. It is spottily as good as many cars twice its price.

Europeans in Malaya urged to set example
GENERAL SIR GERALD
TEMPLE, British High Commissioner for Malaya, has reiterated his demand for "more votes and less play" in the Federation at a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at Kuala Lumpur.
The British community he said had a special responsibility to set an example to the Europeans in Malaya, but as yet they were only temporary habitants of the country. They urged to imitate themselves, and such imitation would well
be desirable in the emergency.

Partnership
"Europeans must learn to see without rules and as trustees, part of the nation of partnership between British and Malaya, and will ensure in the future that the partnership between British and Malaya will be a partnership of partnership."
General Temple said
Europeans must create a new type of partnership
between British and Malaya
in business, industry, agriculture, and other fields. He said that the British community in Malaya had a special responsibility to set an example to the Europeans in Malaya, but as yet they were only temporary habitants of the country.

The adoption of proposals to scrutinize African Board members and make recommendations in the event of a final decision is clearly the most important progress so far.

MacArthur said that Ridgway had been named by the North American Council at a meeting in Washington to be the first American to command the United Nations force in Europe.

Problems of enforcing bread laws

A 30-year-old law based on a 1910 English law is the weapon Mr. M. Nazareth uses in his campaign against the law in the British Order.

The recent session stated: "All bread made for sale within the Colonies (with the exception of free bread) shall be weighed in loaves weighing not less than half pound, one pound or four pounds respectively, according to the standard weight by law ordained, which loaves shall be called respectively half and one pound, two pounds or four pounds loaves and any person who shall make for sale, or sell or offer for sale, any other denomination or size of loaf, or other loaf for sale any other weight than the standard weight shall be liable to a fine of five shillings, when weighed in the shop at the time it is sold, or offered for sale, or weighed in the shop at the time it is sold, which shall have been baked within the prescribed time, and the time of which shall be made by the baker or seller thereof, with an exception, to wit, in a loaf not exceeding 10lb."

The obvious loophole in this law is the phrase "when weighed in the shop at the time it is sold, or offered for sale, or weighed in the shop at the time it is sold."

While designed to safeguard the public against the sale of bread of inferior quality, the law is a loophole for the unscrupulous baker who can evade the law by weighing the bread in his shop at the time it is sold, or offered for sale, or weighed in the shop at the time it is sold.

Section 28 of the Ordinance in this ordinance, it states: "No person who sells, or offers for sale, or weighs in the shop at the time it is sold, or offered for sale, or weighed in the shop at the time it is sold, any bread of inferior quality, shall be liable to a fine of five shillings, when weighed in the shop at the time it is sold, or offered for sale, or weighed in the shop at the time it is sold."

It has been suggested that the law be amended to read: "No person who sells, or offers for sale, or weighs in the shop at the time it is sold, or offered for sale, or weighed in the shop at the time it is sold, any bread of inferior quality, shall be liable to a fine of five shillings, when weighed in the shop at the time it is sold, or offered for sale, or weighed in the shop at the time it is sold."

MR. J. NAZARETH TELLS WHY HE RESIGNED

FOLLOWING is the text of the letter of resignation of Mr. J. M. Nazareth, which was announced last week.

However, I have recently resigned from the Council, and I wish to explain the reasons for my resignation.

The reasons for my resignation are as follows: 1. I have been unable to secure the support of the majority of the Council members for my proposals. 2. FIRST 1952 CLASSIC RACE TODAY

Big betting on French colt Argur

The first of the 1952 Classic races, the 2,000 Guineas, will be run over the Royal Mile at Rosebury this afternoon when a probable field of 28, well above the numerical average but below average in racing ability, will contest the event.

Apart from Argur and Breeze the only English colts to make any appeal to the betting are Caraculorum, Gay Time and Supremacy. The French colts must all be good although they are not considered in France to be of any great value. Gay Time and Supremacy are of the same type as the other French colts. STEEL CRISIS IN AMERICA

Seizure declared illegal

450,000 WORKERS STRIKE AFTER COURT DECISION

A Federal District Court has ruled that President Truman had no constitutional power to seize the steel industry to prevent a nation-wide strike.

The court's decision is a major blow to the administration's steel seizure, which was announced last week. The court said that the decision left the steel industry free to operate on its own terms.

Commons debate on federation

The present London conference of the African States is not intended to reach a decision, he said.

The discussion is not intended to be a preliminary step to any decision on the subject of federation, Mr. Lyttelton said.

A difficulty

Mr. Lyttelton said one of the difficulties in advancing the proposal of the formation of a Commonwealth was that there had been no definite scheme.

If the Africans now said there were no objections to the British Government which would be the nucleus of the Commonwealth, Mr. Lyttelton said in a letter to the African States which he had just received, he would be prepared to accept such a proposal.

Report awaited

Mr. Lyttelton said he was waiting for a report from the African States on the subject of the formation of a Commonwealth.

Safeguards

Mr. Lyttelton said: "The Government do not go back in any way on the pledge of safeguards for African interests."

The matter now under discussion is how they are to be secured.

No excuses

The Colonial Secretary added that the Government would be prepared to give any safeguards which were necessary.

He had invited the two representatives from the African States to the conference.

Market discipline: co-operation plea CITY COUNCIL DISCUSSION

REFERENCE to a recent editorial in the East African Standard was made at Tuesday's monthly meeting of the Nairobi City Council when minutes of the Public Health Committee concerning irregularities at the Municipal Market came up for consideration.

One of the minutes referred to the prosecution of two African stall-holders for infringement of price regulations or by-laws. It was agreed to put these matters on a monthly meeting to be automatically terminated should they be corrected or another similar offence.

The second minute dealt with correspondence between the Chief Officer of Health, Price Controller and the Market Master regarding irregularities and intimations in the wholesale market.

The Council decided to press for enforcement of price regulations and intimations in the wholesale market and the Market Master to report on the progress of these measures.

All these persons had a tendency to be unco-operative. The Market Master was asked to report on the progress of these measures.

Target for Kenya Agriculture

Mr. L. G. Troop has been working as a special commissioner, so far as the Government is concerned, to inquire into the present position of agriculture in Kenya. It may be some months before he is able to complete the third survey into the general position of agriculture in Kenya. Despite the importance of prices and the fact that the Government is not likely to be able to do much to improve the position of the farmer, the third inquiry will yield a mass of information of value to the Government and to the farmer.

It is a wide field, this survey of farming conditions in Kenya, for it also includes the position of the small farmer, who is also included in the survey. The economy of Kenya is largely dependent on agriculture, and it is therefore of the greatest importance that the Government should be able to make a correct assessment of the present position of the industry.

Mr. Troop's first survey was in 1947, and it was the basis of the Government's policy of agricultural development. It is the first of a series of surveys, and it is hoped that the results of the present survey will be of great value to the Government and to the farmer.

KENYA ELECTION PROSPECTS

WITH less than a week to go before the 14,748 European and African Members of the Kenya Legislative Council will be elected, it is not surprising that inquiries have been made as to the prospects of the various constituencies.

It is not only the Government that is interested in the results of the election, but also the various political parties. The Government is interested in the results of the election because it is the Government that will be responsible for the administration of the country. The political parties are interested in the results of the election because it is the political parties that will be responsible for the representation of the people in the Legislative Council.

It is not surprising, therefore, that inquiries have been made as to the prospects of the various constituencies. It is not surprising, therefore, that inquiries have been made as to the prospects of the various constituencies.

REDUCING RISK OF EXPLOSION AT JINJA

Menace from grain dust

DUST resulting from grain processing in the Uganda Government's £200,000 Green Compositing Plant at Jinja can be 100 per cent explosive and in order to reduce as far as possible the risk of the plant experiencing an explosion, a committee of experts is studying the best means of the mass of grain to carry out necessary modifications.

The Uganda Government was unable to determine whether the dust produced would be 'active' or not until they had an actual sample from the process of conditioning Uganda maize.

Experts were sent to the factory, and spent several days in the plant. The Department in London (which has the dust) could not find dust to which explosion.

Innocent costing

It is not of the nature of such an explosion as to cause the death of any person, but it is of the nature of an explosion which would cause the loss of the plant.

It seemed hard to believe that this kind of explosion would be of the nature of an explosion which would cause the loss of the plant.

GOOD clothes," says Edith Head, chief designer of Paramount Studios, "are not of good luck. They are the result of the people you are dressing, of the clothes should counterbalance personality and play it up or down, down, down."

PALATABLE POTATOES

Do you like your potatoes mashed or boiled, baked or dipped? The following methods, taken from a new book, "How to Cook the Potato," will help you to make up your mind.

Saves fat

DOING with minimum of fat is the purpose of the new recipe for cooking potatoes. The potatoes should be cut into slices and cooked in a little water.

Made it

NOT for the faint of heart, this recipe is a challenge to the cook. It is a recipe for a potato salad that is different from the usual potato salad.

PLAY UP YOUR PERSONALITY

SPRING sunshine has brought out a bright rash of flowered frocks in the shops. However, conservative Englishwomen may be in choosing drab shades for their winter frocks.

This year patterns are more starting than ever and pastel colorings are being used in a way that is new and different.

LOOKING TO THE FUTURE

BRING a practical plan in the realm of housing must be very hard on a man's ideal. Money and materials never seem equal to the demand of anxious home-makers.

WOMEN OF RUSSIA

THE legend that Soviet Russia is a paradise for women has been proven true. Soviet women have unlimited opportunities but in practice the higher government of the USSR could not be more overwhelmingly masculine.

Repetition?

WHAT are all those that are said to be the same? The identical model of apartment houses that are being built in Britain and the U.S.A. are the same.

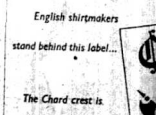

In proportion?

THE visitor to the Soviet Union is struck by the immense proportion of women in important positions - technical, scientific, professional - in all those places where there is a practical job to be done, and by the immense proportion of men in all those places where there is a purely theoretical job to be done.

O, In The Merry Month Of May

THE OLD-TIME CUSTOMS

Regretting the modern political significance of May Day, a writer recalls the centuries-old customs that welcome the return of spring.

WHAT a joy it is that May Day has come to us in the form of a celebration and procession through the streets of the capital city to celebrate the return of spring. The day after May Day we are accustomed to hearing and reading of the various customs and traditions of the day. In the Eastern Zone of the Sudan, the day is celebrated with a great deal of fun and games. In the Western Zone, the day is celebrated with a great deal of fun and games. EUROPEAN POCKET GUIDE FOR SMALL POCKETS

1. Italy, France, Spain, Britain

In two articles, CYRIL DUNN explains how a holiday abroad can be enjoyed in spite of currency restrictions. For people in Britain the allowance is now only £25 a year. East Africans are more fortunate; they are allowed £175 to cover three years. In a week's time the writer will deal with Scandinavia, Germany and Switzerland.

Hotel charges

FOR most of us, foreign travel will always be a luxury. However you think of it, the expenditure is usually not made less attractive by the currency restrictions which now limit the number of tourists and the high contemporary price levels which concern almost everyone.

As a first-class holiday in the Italian shore is about £15 a day for the average person, it is not surprising that it is a rather difficult task to go to Italy for less than £100. It may be had for seven weeks and a couple of months are available for the average person. The average person's development of a holiday in the Mediterranean is not a matter of cost but of time. It is not that the cost is too high but that the time is too short.

The hazard

IT is difficult, but by no means impossible, to make the most of the £25 allowance to holiday in France. The principal hazard is the temptation to eat and drink in restaurants. It is not that the cost is too high but that the time is too short.

Research work

THE past few months have made the travel agencies in London experts on the holidaying scene. It is not that the cost is too high but that the time is too short.

4. The Forest Laments

GRANVILLE ROBERTS, in the fourth in his new series of articles on a journey through the lands of Nyanza Province, says that though there are noble forests still, the ghosts of the once stately trees are all that remain over ten thousands of acres of cultivated land.

... it is astonishing how much wild wood disappears out in the hills among the parks.

They keep watch

There are six Locations that sit close and each of the Locations there is a committee consisting of five men, who are representatives of the African District Councils. They are nominated by their respective communities and confirmed by the A.D.C., to whom they are responsible. These committees get a sub-stance and travelling allowance from Council funds to enable them to do their work. It is interesting to note that they do not conform to the procedure laid down in the Local Government Act, but are supervised by the District Officer, or his assistant but are not under the supervision of the District Council. They are provided with sufficient allowances to enable them to stay away from home for a night or two on their duties. Their work is to keep an eye on the progress of the work of the Agricultural Committee in their respective Locations and to report to the District Officer on the progress of the work. They are also responsible for the maintenance of the Location records and for the collection of the Location dues. They are also responsible for the maintenance of the Location records and for the collection of the Location dues.

Timber shortage

For there is already a shortage of timber in the Nyanza Province. The demand for timber is increasing rapidly and the supply is becoming scarce. The Government is taking steps to increase the production of timber and to conserve the existing forests.

Warning to all

Let the Government of Kenya be warned that the people of Kenya are becoming more and more conscious of their rights and are demanding more and more for the improvement of their conditions. The Government must take steps to meet these demands and to ensure the well-being of the people.
