TWO STEAL LIMELIGHT AT LORD'S

Evans, Mankad—third day's stars

TWO men dominated the third day's play in the second Test match between England and India at Lord's on Saturday. They were Geoffrey Evans, England's wicket-keeper and adventurous batsman, and Vinoo Mankad, the player borrowed from Lancashire League cricket to give a much-needed fillip to an Indian side that seemed to lack a batting line-up.

Evans, in a characteristic screwballing mood, was robbed by minutes by the first English batsman to hit a Test century before, the Lancashire opener, Mankad. Mankad, after a century of 120 runs, was the only batsman to score a century in the first innings, opened the batting for India, and finished the day with a brilliant, unbroken knock of 90.

When his half-century plus run meant that the appointed time limit with which he was supposed to retire was approaching, Mankad decided to play a number of extra balls to give his batsmen a chance to score. He was not alone in this. In the first innings, Mankad was the only batsman to score a century in the first innings, opened the batting for India, and finished the day with a brilliant, unbroken knock of 90.

Wimbledon touch from Sodgman

FRANK SODGMAN, an Australian, who is seeded No. 1 for the men's singles event in the Wimbledon championships which start this week, gave a performance which suggests well for his chances, when he won the London singles title at the Queen's Club on Saturday. He defeated his fellow-countryman, Murray Rose, in the final, by 10-6, 6-2.

CONSTITUTION OF TANGANYIKA

Changes in Council

EQUAL REPRESENTATION OF THREE MAIN RACES

THE British Government has accepted the recommendations of the Tanganyika Constitutional Development Committee that the three main racial groups should be represented equally in the Tanganyika Legislative Council. A further recommendation of the Committee that the Official Majority should remain unchanged has been accepted.

Announcing this in Parliament yesterday, the Secretary of State for the Colonies, Mr. Oliver Lytton, stated that the British Government accept the recommendations of the Constitutional Development Committee that the three main racial groups—African, Asiatic and European—be represented equally in the Legislative Council. Mr. Lytton added that the Government will do all in their power to ensure that the report of the Special Committee will be carried out as far as possible.

Mr. Lytton also stated that the Government will do all in their power to ensure that the report of the Special Committee will be carried out as far as possible.  Value of neutrality today

By SEBASTIAN HAYFRON
 Incidents like the shooting down of an unarmed Swedish aircraft by Russian fighters over the Baltic following the abandonment of a Swedish transport plane without warning by the Baltic States, would in former times have been regarded as serious breaches of the peace, leading to diplomatic crises of the gravest character.

WEATHER SCOTTICISM, NOT PANIC, PREVALENS IN FRANCE

Premier fights rising prices

PARIS, June 26.—The French Communist riots, occasional food riots, allegations of conspiracy and espionage—these are all the things which have given the impression of a France that is really like a powder keg.

It is not, however, as the Premier, Jean-Benoite Leduc, has said, a "hot-headed" affair. It is a "cold-headed" affair, and it is a "cold-headed" affair which has led to the call for a "cold-headed" strike in the country.

ALL YOU HAVE TO DO... is to compose a rhyme commencing with the first three letters of the famous nursery rhyme "LITTLE MISS MUFFET", and incorporate the word "CARSALES" in not less than 6 or 8 lines, e.g.

Little Miss Muffet got up from her tuft to sit by the roadside to dine,
Where she sat down to dine,
That drove up beside her,
Hired a car from "CARSALES" each day.

LOOKING BACK ON THE ROYAL SHOW!

LOOKING back at the first Royal Show to be held at Mitchell Park by the Royal Agricultural Society of Kenya, it is pleasant to reflect that the success of the country visitors was unanimous in praise of this splendid event.

Mitchell Park probably has no equal in the Empire as a showground. To see it still a good deal of development to do some of it is a pleasure. The Society's scope because the first time was a financial success, but the basic work is there still in its first year.

FAMOUS FOOD PRODUCTS

It is often surprising how many people suffer from itching, burning, stinging, and burning sensations in the anal region. This is due to a condition known as hemorrhoids. You can get relief and cure by using DOANS. DOANS is a powerful laxative that acts on the blood. It is safe and effective. It is the only laxative that acts on the blood. It is the only laxative that acts on the blood. It is the only laxative that acts on the blood.

THIS page of photographs from the Royal Show, pictures some of the cattle exhibits and the three leading horse prize-winners. Although the cattle exhibits were departed owing to foot-and-mouth disease, there were some excellent examples shown by breeders, especially in the classes for Ayrshires, Jerseys and Borses.

'A brave show'

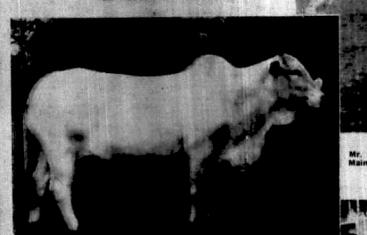

These helped to relieve what might have been a very disappointing situation for the first Royal Agricultural Show to be held at Kirtland Park. In the main, all the breeds put on a brave show which was largely appreciated by the many thousands of the general public who thereby got a chance to see representative cattle.

The picture above shows the memorial water-tower which was formally dedicated to the Governor, Sir Philip Hone, by the Society for the Preservation of Cattle to Animals in memory of Captain Sir H. H. Hone, who died in 1948 and bequeathed the whole of his estate to the Society as a token of his lifelong love of and interest in animals.

On the right is Mrs. C. V. Brambridge's 'Herald Bush Demons' Jersey pedigree bull and, on the left, a Hereford bull from the Central Artificial Insemination Station.

Beef and mutton prices

The Editor, "E.A. Standard"
The price of beef and mutton has been of late very erratic. It is of course, a natural consequence of the fact that the supply of these commodities is very limited. It is, however, a pity that the price of these commodities should be so high. It is, however, a pity that the price of these commodities should be so high.
