BRITAIN AND FRANCE TO STAY BY POLAND

Momentous Statement by Prime Minister in House of Commons

REPLY TO RUMOURS OF GERMAN ULTIMATUM

CONFERENCE SUGGESTION

A statement described as possibly the most momentous in the House of Commons in the last quarter of a century—a reference to Sir Edward Grey's historic warning to Germany about the violation of Belgian territory—was made by the Prime Minister yesterday afternoon.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN SAID THAT IN THE EVENT OF ANY ACTION WHICH THREATENED POLISH INDEPENDENCE AND WHICH THE POLISH GOVERNMENT CONSIDERED IT VITAL TO RESIST WITH THEIR NATURAL FORCES HIS MAJESTY'S GOVERNMENT WOULD FEEL ITSELF BOUND AT ONCE TO LEAD POLAND ALLY SUPPORT IN ITS POWER. THE FRENCH GOVERNMENT HAD AUTHORIZED HIM TO MAKE IT PLAIN THAT THEY STOOD IN THE SAME POSITION AS BRITAIN.

This statement followed rumours which had circulated all day that Germany had presented an ultimatum to Poland.

LONDON, March 31.—The ultimatum of time or threats of force to the Polish Government, which was announced yesterday morning in a statement by the Prime Minister, Sir Stanley Baldwin, in the House of Commons, was described as possibly the most momentous in the last quarter of a century—a reference to Sir Edward Grey's historic warning to Germany about the violation of Belgian territory—was made by the Prime Minister yesterday afternoon.

Action for Slander EMPIRE

I REMEMBER reading Mary Burton's novel, "Action for Slander" some weeks ago and finding it an interesting theme. The invidious quality of the spoken word, the difficulty of denying what has never happened and the conflicting forces that take possession of a man's own mind.

"Action for Slander" is all about a man who is accused of a crime... I know little about poetry, I know it, to this point, rather a slender subject for drama when the case comes up before a judge who knows less about it still.

These Stories Made News

(From the London Correspondence of the "East African Standard")

A woman was given a golden shower with coins in an action she brought against Nairoba Liberal Club's "Crown Shield" in 1936 damages for alleged breach of warranty. The plaintiff said that the other of a coat purchased from the club was found to contain a gold shower and that as a result she suffered from a skin disease. The defendant said she was Miss Alice Thacker. Her Counsel said that when she first wore the coat an unpleasant odour was noticed. It was taken to a chemist, who, on opening the collar, found a decomposed mouse head. The doctor said Miss Thacker was on the verge of a nervous breakdown. Judge Sir Woodroffe Sheppard said that it seemed reasonable to hold that the mouse was in the coat when it was bought. He found that the conditions that the defendant and subsequent defendant did not agree from the wearing of the coat. In these circumstances the judge made his decision.

Two 12 years old boys, accused in the juvenile court of Liverpool, were found to have slipped another boy of all weight except his shirt and to have used him as a human target for their darts (through an air pistol). The victim was 11, and a stranger to the boys who after giving him chocolate made him demand a doanied gift. After one dart had missed he caught their hands and held out his arm and another dart hit his finger. The boy was and the others chased him huffing leg clothes, cutting his head and bruising his face as he fell and lay helpless. He was hit but recovered and his mother took him to hospital. The magistrate commended the two accused in custody for a week to consider their penalty. He remarked "Plugging is the only gift for you, but unless you are satisfied we are not allowed to order it in this court." He fined the offending boys.

Love of collecting antique coat Old Thomas Charles Arthur John Milward, aged 34, a septuagenarian, was spending a holiday at Gorse, Cornwall, when he noticed a slide-hat in the room, at the back of the house in 1865, hanging in the Parish Church. He was very curious, examined him and he carried it to his home in Bournemouth, Dorset. He exhibited it last year at the Antiquarian Society. It was one of the few in existence and no picture was known. At his trial Milward said that he was a fine hunter that he felt disgusted to see it reported in the press. He admitted offering it for sale but said he always sends a price beyond it, neither value it. Milward also had to pay a fine of £2.

Mary Wilson Hairdressing The hairdressing style of hairdressing his hair and we are to have a Mary Wilson style, short hair, and curls. The new fashion shows the hair cut short to about an inch at the back, and either dressed in curls above the nape of the neck or braided a row the head or loose in a spray of curls behind the ears. It is a new decorative concept that hair styles should be designed to blend with individual styles. The Queen, by the way, had a most charming Christmas dinner on at Court Garden when she attended the Quiz Performance with the French President. It was a decided success with his full of talk in their from the west.

To Sell Village Earl Poulton is to sell the agricultural portions about 3,500 acres, of the Bishop St. George's Estate, between Tynon and Taunton, Somerset. The estate comprises practically all the whole of the village of Bishop St. George with its church, a distillery house and cottage, and two public houses. It includes Priory Farm, the largest part of a manor, and 10 other farms. Bishop House, said to have been built in the latter half of the 15th century, will be retained, with its park of about 1,200 acres. The portion to be sold has a present value of about £2,100 and will be offered by auction at Tynon during the summer. Lord Poulton, who is 29, is married to the wife of the late father was killed in action in 1918. He married Miss "Owl" Ross, the actress in 1928.

LAND OF DISCONTENTED AND DISILLUSIONED PEOPLE

Kent Canon Saw Economic Misery Behind Italy's Fascist Facade

Italy—land of discontented and disillusioned people who dislike the Germans and wish to be friendly with Britain and France, a country with no money and which would be disrupted by war.

That is the picture painted by Canon F. J. Shirley, Headmaster of King's School, Canterbury, who recently completed a three months' tour of the country.

A vastly different picture of Italy from the one which Mussolini likes to impress on the world was painted by Canon F. Shirley, Headmaster of the King's School, Canterbury, who returned recently from a three months' visit to Italy under the auspices of the League of Nations.

His conclusions may be summed up under three heads:—

1. Economic conditions.—Misérable. Great poverty in widespread and everywhere. No unemployment in any form of workers here. Foreign Affairs—Germans are disliked by the masses, who wish to be friendly with Britain and France. They are not in the least interested in talk of "Fascist Unity" and the "New Roman Empire".

The Future.—A desperate—some one who would be able to align the Italian working class with Germany and against Britain and France. The country has no money and would be disrupted by war.

Widespread Poverty

Canon Shirley said that he had visited Italy several times and had seen the conditions in the language to speak to the people openly and without disguise.

LEGACY TO GIRL "CLEAR OUT YOUR NAZIS!"

Major Cooper's Second Gift Of £5,000 Invalid

A rich man's additional gift of £5,000 to his only daughter, a young woman whom he had already bequeathed £10,000, in the will of his late wife, Mrs. Cooper, in the Chamber of Deputies to be made.

He gave judgment in a summary process under the will of Mrs. Cooper, former wife of Harwood Cooper, Northamptonshire, which was made in the will of the late Mrs. Cooper.

It was stated that Major Cooper left £5,000 to his only daughter, the late one on March 27, 1938, two years before he died. He died at Kilmorie, where he was big game shooting.

The second will revealed the secret and restored the first will with an exception to which the sum was referred. It was stated that Major Cooper had been granted to all three daughters. Among the respondents was Miss Emily Cooper, who claimed to be the daughter of the late Mrs. Cooper.

Mr. Justice Glynne said that in the last will Major Cooper directed that £5,000 be bequeathed to his only daughter, the late Mrs. Cooper, to be held in trust for her. The sum was to be paid to her when she reached the age of 21.

Baked In Cabinet
Makes Crippled
Men Walk Again

A 24-year-old Highland barman, Robert Mack Khum, who came to London eight months ago in search of better wages, is helping to make medical history at the London Hospital, White-chapel Road.

He has had his first treatment in a Hypertherm, the only one of its kind in the country. He had suffered excruciating pain from arthritis of the hip and was unable to stand. In three weeks' time (says the "News Chronicle") it is expected he will walk back to his job.

The Hypertherm arrived at the London Hospital last November, and has since got some crippled men on their feet again in an average of three weeks' treatment each.

How it Works

It works on the entirely new principle of raising a high temperature of between 100 and 107 degrees in the patient and maintaining it for hours on end.

The patient is installed in a large cabinet of compressed wood treated for resistance to heat. He lies on an air mattress and is covered with a blanket wrung out of hot water.

Two heaters set in a water bath maintain a quantity of 50 per cent hot temperature of 118 degrees in the cabinet air. Between blankets and skin the humidity goes up to 100 per cent.

NATIVE WITH A SWASTIKA

Reports are reaching London that some members of the Nazis in South-West Africa, who have not yet been expelled, are using a Commission of Enquiry appointed by the Union Government in 1928 show attention at "interference by the Nazi party," but it has been an extension of new reports in the London Evening Standard.

An official of the Colonial League said: "Nazi propaganda in South Africa is being financed from Berlin and leaflets printed in Germany are being distributed. In the Witwatersrand gold mines leaflets are being handed to the natives describing capitalist exploitation" and "Nazi propaganda."

Will be Detained

"Now, however, the Germans have been ordered by their local newspaper, the Deutsche Beobachter, that they will be strictly controlled by the rest of the German community if they become active in the Witwatersrand."

"We hear from Swakopmund in South-West Africa that all German stores and businesses in that district have been instructed by the local Nazi party not to employ Britons or Afrikaners. Employers are warned that discriminatory action will be taken against those who disobey these instructions."

"The uncertainty of the future is seriously retarding the development of South-West Africa, which has not ceased to be being attended with astonishing rapidity."

"Germany is buying up mortgages and farms from both British and Afrikaner settlers, who are selling out and returning to the United Kingdom in the highest unemployment. These purchases are taking place on such a scale that the German minority are now well on the road to becoming the biggest landowners in the territory."

WHOLE WORLD IMPRESSED BY BRITISH DECLARATION

Herr Hitler Scoffs But Says Nothing New

THE NEXT PHASE

Mr. Chamberlain's announcement of the British and French policy of Polish independence has made a deep impression throughout the world.

Herr Hitler is very angry about it. Although he made no direct reference to the statement in his speech yesterday he related a great many laudatory and approving remarks of the prevailing policy directed against Germany.

The speech contained no surprises and no new announcements of policy.

Herr Hitler's speech at the Reichstag in Berlin yesterday made a deep impression throughout the world. The occasion was the opening of the Reichstag in Berlin. The speech was the first since the outbreak of the war. It was a statement of the German position in the war. It was a statement of the German position in the war. It was a statement of the German position in the war.

The further spoke behind a series of bullet-point plans in the early stages of Hitler's speech.

Herr Hitler spoke bitterly. He continued to utter and utter words of anger and indignation. He continued to utter and utter words of anger and indignation. He continued to utter and utter words of anger and indignation.

FIVE MORE BOMBS IN LONDON

Considerable Damage Done To Business Premises

Considerable damage was done in various parts of London early on Saturday morning by five bomb explosions believed to be the work of members of the I.R.A. organisation.

It is thought the bombs were taken round in a motor car and left outside the premises selected for attack. These included a newspaper office and a bank.

London, April 1.—A further series of bomb outbreaks broke many more shops this morning in each case bombs were exploded outside modern shop fronts and they did a great deal of damage.

The first shattered the window of the New Chronicle advertisement office in Fleet street and made a large hole in the masonry. A man was seen running away from the scene.

An hour later the front of a dress shop in Park Lane was blown up. The third explosion wrecked the front of a big furniture shop in Tottenham Court Road; the fourth damaged a large book shop in Grosvenor Court and at 6 a.m. a fifth damaged a bank in the Strand.

See by Postcard
 It is believed that the perpetrators drove round in a car leaving the bombs, because at one spot a pedestrian interfered a police officer from a motor car. The officer found a live bomb in the roadway and immediately took steps to render it harmless.

These outrages came a few hours after the conviction of several Irishmen. It is thought that the IRA is in a state of confusion. It is thought that the IRA is in a state of confusion. It is thought that the IRA is in a state of confusion.

UGANDA KOB'S EASTER VISIT

The Uganda Kobs will bring a series of matches to play Gymbankans (Kobs) at the Easter weekend. These very pleasant fixtures are annual events taking place in alternate years in Nairobi and in Uganda. The matches are being played on Good Friday morning (April 21) and will leave for Uganda on Monday (April 18).

The matches arranged with Gymbankans were—Friday (April 14) at 8 p.m. at the Gymbankans, Saturday (April 15) at 8 p.m. at the Gymbankans, and Sunday (April 16) at 2 p.m. at the Gymbankans. No arrangements have yet been made, but the country of the Uganda Kobs is now and they are expected to be members of the Uganda Cricket Board and their opponents during the time of the tour.

HOSPITALS CUP FINAL

St. Mary's Sixth Successive Win

Next to the International and the County Championships, the most popular event in the sports calendar is the Hospitals Cup. This year St. Mary's won the Cup for the sixth year in succession.

The winner, however, was clearly the better side, as they were not only able to beat the other side, but also to win the Cup for the sixth year in succession. The match was a hard fought one, but St. Mary's emerged as the victors.

Your Smile Requires HEALTHY, WHITE TEETH

Your Dentist Says—"TAKE CARE OF YOUR GUMS"
... Start with IPANA and Massage today
YOUR dentist knows that to have healthy teeth you must have firm, healthy gums. He will tell you that soft, flabby gums may lead to various diseases—gingivitis, pyorrhea, Vincent's disease. Gums become flabby because our modern tooth bristles do not massage them—but massage them work as they mean to have good circulation. So start now with IPANA and massage.

London, Mar. 18. No concern has been the demand for British-made Cotton in the home market that the huge new factory at London has had a difficult task trying to fill export orders.

Originally built to supply the whole world excepting the American continent, it was never anticipated that the popularity of Cotton in Britain would mean almost the whole production to be taken up.

The factory had to cable to the Kenya and Uganda Colonies (The Anglo-Baltic Timber Co., Ltd., Nairobi) for necessary instal new machinery doubling production, and to ship necessary material to March the new boards are of magnificent quality—British and Best.

Keep your money between Kenya, Uganda and the Old Country and use Cotton for your clothing and wall.

The Anglo Baltic Timber Co., Ltd. forwarding the rush, made sure of having sufficient stocks by trading their stock order.

RESULTS OF SATURDAY'S MATCHES
All Leaders Now Firmly Entrenched

London, March 2
Cambridge continued to lead the season on Saturday and leading Oxford by 100 runs.

The time of 19 seconds was exactly a minute slower than the present set up by Cambridge in 1928, and nearly a minute and a half better than Owen's winning time last year. In all the circumstances it was certainly a record.

Conditions early on were very much better than on parts of the 41 Putney-Marble course and whether it was a matter of 100 yards or 100 Paces, but later it was sunny and warm, the water smooth and in an immense creek condition ideal. An immense crowd lined the banks and arched over the river.

Cambridge drew the heavy netting which gave them the advantage of the big head from the Mile Post.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE TO GIVE GUARANTEE TO RUMANIA?

DINING IN PUBLIC

10 Years For Terrorist

ELECTIONS IN BELGIUM

Regarded as Probable Next Step In The New Policy

HITLER'S SPEECH: A WARNING

MEMORANDUM RECEIVED YESTERDAY INDICATE THAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE MAY GIVE RUMANIA A SIMILAR GUARANTEE TO THAT MADE IN RESPECT OF POLAND. IN OTHER WORDS THAT ANY THREAT BY GERMANY TO RUMANIAN INDEPENDENCE WOULD BE RESISTED BY THE TWO GREAT DEMOCRACIES.

This week is regarded as extremely important for the future of international relationships. Last night the Polish Foreign Minister arrived in London and will start a series of talks with the Prime Minister and Lord Halifax today.

The British Press is at pains to point out that the essence in Herr Hitler's speech on Saturday only referring to Poland should not be taken as a favourable sign.

London, April 3. Colonel Beck the Polish Foreign Minister arrived in London this evening on an official visit. He was met at the station by Lord Halifax.

His first speech in London was a warning to Germany that any attempt to invade Poland would be met by the British and French.

NO WORLD DOMINATION

The Prime Minister has said the following in the annual report of the League of Nations Association.

"We are pursuing through difficulties the road to a world of peace and stability. We are not seeking world domination. We are not seeking to dominate any other nation. We are seeking to secure the peace and stability of the world."

On the subject of the recent Polish ultimatum, the Prime Minister said that the British Government is prepared to negotiate on a basis of equality, but that any attempt to impose world domination would be met by the British and French.

Latest News

London, April 3. Foreign policy made its most dramatic move this evening. The Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, announced that the British Government would guarantee the independence of Rumania.

His speech was regarded as a warning to Germany that any attempt to invade Poland would be met by the British and French.

He said that the British Government was prepared to negotiate on a basis of equality, but that any attempt to impose world domination would be met by the British and French.

He also mentioned the fact that the British Government was prepared to negotiate on a basis of equality, but that any attempt to impose world domination would be met by the British and French.

Shs. 8,750 And A Special Gift For Twins

Pressure upon space, not the absence of donations, was the reason for the non-appearance of the Children's Holiday Camp yesterday.

There has been a really remarkable response during the past week-end and the Fund is now climbing steadily nearer the Ten Thousand shillings mark.

But as we said before, there is a heavy burden of responsibility on the Committee this year owing to the fact that no appeal was made for two years and we would appeal again therefore for that old pound note which, well within the capacity of many people, would be a very valuable contribution to the Fund.

ROADS AS AN ANSWER TO THE ROYAL COMMISSION'S PROPOSALS

One Government For Two Of The Territories

COMMISSION'S PROPOSALS

The Royal Commission which examined the question of union between Southern Rhodesia, Northern Rhodesia and Nyasaland has today published its report. The report states that the three territories are eminently deserving though they do not regard federation as a possible solution, in view of the different stages of social and political development reached in the several territories.

On the other hand the Commission expresses the view that the three territories will become more and more closely interdependent and their report suggests that the Imperial Government should take an early opportunity of stating its acceptance of the principle that identity of interests will lead sooner or later to political unity.

THE COMMISSION RECOMMENDS THAT NYASALAND AND NORTHERN RHODESIA SHOULD BE COMBINED WITH UNDUDE DELAY UNDER A SINGLE GOVERNMENT.

An Inter-Territorial Council is urged as a positive step to encourage the essential identity of interests and interdependence of the three territories.

Support is given to the suggestion made in Lord Hailley's "African Survey" that the formation of a separate branch of the Colonial Service, confined to employment in Africa, might be considered.

"FRANCO" CONSIDERATIONS

The British South African Commission, appointed by the Secretary of State, said in its report that the three territories are eminently deserving though they do not regard federation as a possible solution, in view of the different stages of social and political development reached in the several territories. The Commission expressed the view that the three territories will become more and more closely interdependent and their report suggests that the Imperial Government should take an early opportunity of stating its acceptance of the principle that identity of interests will lead sooner or later to political unity.

Why FLIT is so deadly to MOSQUITOES

FLIT is so deadly to mosquitoes because it is a combination of two powerful insecticides which work in different ways. One kills the mosquito when it enters the body, the other kills it when it comes out. This is why you should always use it in the most effective manner.

 Sir—It is interesting to hear that the war cloud which for many months has darkened the blue Mediterranean sky is now rapidly passing away before us, it is very true.

CHILD LABOUR
 To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
 Sir—Archdeacon Owen's latest issue of "Crisis" has a chapter on Mr. Morrison, which is probably the best I have read for some time. It is a most interesting and timely article. It is a pity that the English child labour law is so weak. It is a pity that the English child labour law is so weak. It is a pity that the English child labour law is so weak.

BRITAIN'S NEW POLICY BACKED BY ALL PARTIES

Remarkable Debate In The House Of Commons

A GERMAN REPLY

THE EXTREME IMPORTANCE AND SIGNIFICANCE OF THE NEW DEVELOPMENT IN FOREIGN POLICY ANNOUNCED BY THE PRIME MINISTER ON FRIDAY WERE EMPHASIZED BY MEMBERS OF ALL PARTIES IN PARLIAMENT ON MONDAY.

Mr. Chamberlain stressed that it represented a tremendous departure from anything Britain had ever undertaken in the past. He declared that Britain was united from end to end in support of the declaration (guaranteeing help for Poland if that country is attacked) and that the policy enunciated on Friday had the cordial approval of the whole Empire.

The Prime Minister said it was essential that Britain should make her position clear and unmistakable whatever the result might be.

London, April 4. On the eve of the Anglo-Polish pact for which Chamberlain was named as the author, Mr. Chamberlain called all parties in the House of Commons to Monday to endorse the Government's declaration of its policy towards Poland. The Prime Minister's declaration was a historic statement of his intention of Friday and the reasons which made that announcement.

It is said that the description of the policy as a "corporate aid" was intended to attract attention to the fact that it was a complete departure from anything which Britain had ever undertaken in the past.

It is said that the description of the policy as a "corporate aid" was intended to attract attention to the fact that it was a complete departure from anything which Britain had ever undertaken in the past.

The Opposition Liberals, said Mr. Chamberlain, had not only approved the declaration but had also supported it in the House of Commons. The Government had not been surprised at a similar approval in the House of Commons. Mr. Chamberlain said that the policy enunciated on Friday had the cordial approval of the whole Empire.

KING GHAZI OF IRAK KILLED IN CAR ACCIDENT

Paris, April 4. A Havas message from Baghdad reports that King Ghazi of Iraq has been killed in a motor accident.

He was driving his own car towards the palace when he hit an electric pole at high speed.

The King was knocked unconscious immediately and died at 4 o'clock that morning from a fractured skull. Five doctors signed the death bulletin.

King Ghazi's three year old son was proclaimed King under the name of King Faisal II. A brother in law of the late King will act as Regent.

King Ghazi was born on March 21, 1912, and was the son of the late King Faisal. He was crowned King of Iraq in 1933 and succeeded his father on September 8, 1933.

In 1934 he married Princess Aliyah, daughter of King Ali of the Hejaz.

Early last month he issued a manifesto to the Army declaring that he would not tolerate the Army mixing in politics and warning the people against intrigues directed against the Government.

ITALY TO SEND TROOPS TO ALBANIA?

Rumoured Plan For Protectorate

IT IS REPORTED THAT TROOP SHIPS ARE STANDING BY AT BARI AND BRINDISI AND THAT OVER TWENTY THOUSAND MEN ARE CONCENTRATED IN THAT DISTRICT, THUS REVIVING THE RUMOURS CURRENT TEN DAYS AGO AND OFFICIALLY DENIED VERBALLY, TO THE EFFECT THAT ITALIAN TROOPS ARE PREPARING A LANDING IN ALBANIA.

The suggestion is made here that Albania may consent to something in the nature of an Italian Protectorate and that such a step would have the entire agreement of King Zog.

A statement issued in Tirana (capital of Albania) today says that Albania would never allow her independence or integrity to be violated.

In London, while it is not denied that there are indications of military activity in Italy, it is felt difficult to believe that Italy would take any action infringing Albania's independence. This was a friendly reference by King Victor Emmanuel to Albania in his recent speech as recalled as well as the clause in the Anglo-Italian Agreement which says that any infringement of Albanian sovereignty would violate the status quo in the Mediterranean.

Albania, in the East coast of the Adriatic Sea, has a total area of 11,000 sq. miles, total population (Census of 1930) 1,063,184. The principal seaports are on the north and east, Vlorina, and on the south-east and south, Durazzo.

After the Armistice a National Council at Durazzo established a provisional government supported by an Italian military occupation of the country. The independence of the country was reaffirmed and established by the Supreme Council of the Allies. The provisional government was in power until 1925, when a revolt overthrew it and set up a new government which remained in power until 1928.

POLAND AND BRITAIN

Mutual Defence Pact

London, April 4. Talks between British Ministers and Colonel Beck, Poland's Foreign Secretary, opened in the Foreign Office this morning. They were officiated by Lord Halifax and Colonel Beck and other leading party members. The British Government's proposal for a mutual defence pact with Poland was discussed in the House of Commons to meet Mr. Chamberlain's proposal. It was maintained in an official statement in the Foreign Office this evening.

It is believed that the Polish Government would accept the British pledge to Poland to offer an agreement of mutual defence and that Colonel Beck has offered to accept the British proposal to sign a mutual defence pact with Poland in the event of an attack on either country. It is believed that the Polish Government would accept the British pledge to Poland to offer an agreement of mutual defence and that Colonel Beck has offered to accept the British proposal to sign a mutual defence pact with Poland in the event of an attack on either country.

Slovakia Gives Way

Budapest, April 4. Negotiations about the frontier between Hungary and Slovakia have been concluded. It is stated here that the territory agreed to Hungary will be formally handed over to the Budapest Government before Easter.

According to reports from Bratislava, which is stated to have territory containing about 40,000 people, the majority of whom are Ruthenians, the territory is being handed over to the Budapest Government in a collective agreement.

The Rumanian minister to London, Buchach, today returned to London. He has now in full possession of a Rumanian passport. It is believed that the Rumanian Government will be able to make a preliminary reply on behalf of the Government to the British Government's proposal for a mutual defence pact with Poland in the event of an attack on either country.

N. RHODESIA'S DEFENCES

Defence matters occupied a large part of the speech made by the Governor of Northern Rhodesia, John Murray, when he opened the second session of the Legislative Council at Lusaka.

Mr. John said that the Government had decided for the present to rely on the assistance of the British Army for voluntary assistance and had to be in a position to meet the European defence forces, making the time factor was an important one in considering legislation did not require legislative approval of compulsory registration, their own.

On February 23 showed that 4,278 farms were issued and this was returned. To the latter figure was added 465 farms in terms of the European defence forces, making a total of 4,743 farms of service.

These people would require some response in fact, but he believed that to be an erroneous impression. He had been urged to introduce legislation for compulsory registration at this session and he intended to do this when the next session with the members.

Defence Force

As regards the establishment of a defence force, Mr. Murray said that in his opinion in their appeal was excellent and he was confident that the Government would be able to get the force.

It would take some time to assemble from England the personnel and to equip to train the force. In the meantime the existing force in the colony would be used to get the force.

The John emphasized that that time was not to be used to get the force.

He also said to supplement the existing force to give full support and to operate in the event of an emergency. He said that he had already issued his orders regarding the personnel and to equip to train the force. In the meantime the existing force in the colony would be used to get the force.

USAMBARA ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING

The annual general meeting of the Usambara Association took place at the Clubhouse, Lusaka, on March 26. The Chairman, Dr. G. A. Williams, in his report for the year, drew attention to the work which the Committee had been carrying out during the year. The financial statement showed a satisfactory position in spite of the extremely low subscription.

There recently the Committee had been concerned with the re-constitution of the Usambara Development Committee, particularly to one of their Members had been called to serve in it.

The financial report showed a satisfactory position in spite of the extremely low subscription.

Transport Plan Opposed

DETRIMENTAL TO COUNTRY SAY

DODOMA INDIANS

The Dodoma Indians have expressed their opposition to the proposed transport plan for the country. They believe that the plan is detrimental to the country's development and that it will lead to the displacement of the local population.

The plan involves the construction of a road from Dodoma to the coast, which would allow for the transport of goods and passengers. However, the Indians fear that this will lead to the influx of foreign labor and the displacement of the local population.

They also believe that the plan will lead to the destruction of the local environment and the loss of their traditional way of life.

Nation Cannot Be Built On Hatred

A great nation could not be built on hatred, said the Hon. Ernest Lapointe, Canada's minister of justice. He is a former member of the House of Commons and is now a member of the Senate.

Lapointe made these remarks during a speech in the Senate on the subject of the proposed transport plan for the country. He said that the plan would lead to the displacement of the local population and the destruction of their traditional way of life.

He also said that the plan would lead to the influx of foreign labor and the displacement of the local population. He said that the plan would lead to the destruction of the local environment and the loss of their traditional way of life.

Kenya's Happy Atmosphere

IS MISSING IN COUNTRIES TO THE SOUTH

In addressing a general meeting of the "Home Settlers' Association on Saturday evening at Nakuru... Mr. Robert Ball, the well-known Agricultural Officer, Kenya, gave an most interesting talk.

Starting with his visit to St. Helena, he said that the dwellers in that former prison of Napoleonic had, until recently, few if any inducements to attract them.

It was gratifying to think that it was a large number of settler-farmers, servants, and others who also occupied the island.

RUGBY SEASON OPENS IN EXCITING FASHION

R.A.F. Defeated After Leading By Eight Points

The first match of the Nakuru Rugby football season proved most exciting... The R.A.F. led 8-0 at half-time, but the home side rallied splendidly and eventually beat the R.A.F. by 18 points to 11.

Admittedly the R.A.F. was their opponents, were not at all fresh from their holiday in England, but they were not to be taken for granted.

"Conscription In Britain Can Save Peace"

With many Frenchmen now the question is—will there be conscription in Britain?

In the French case it is today, conscription in England can save peace because it will encourage her allies and so maintain in existence a second front, and it will render the defeat of the Western Democracies highly improbable.

It is to be noted that the House of Commons has been petitioned to hold a debate on the subject of conscription in Britain. The importance of this debate is the most important of the present hour. It is the only one which will be held in the House of Commons in the present session. It is the only one which will be held in the House of Commons in the present session. It is the only one which will be held in the House of Commons in the present session.

Nairobi Municipal Council

Indian Members To Be Elected In Future

The Government-County Board members of the Nairobi Municipal Council shall be elected in future. At present these seven members were nominated to hold office for three years. But the three papers which were put before the Council on the 14th inst. show that an election must be held. It is necessary that there should be at least one member of the Nairobi Municipal Council who shall be a native of the country. The Government-County Board members of the Nairobi Municipal Council shall be elected in future.

Steward Gave His Life For Passengers

LOST HIS REASON IN SEA ORDEAL AFTER "CAVALIER" HAD CRASHED

A remarkable story of a steward who "went himself out assisting passengers until he lost his reason" is told in the report of the Imperial Airways flying-boat "Cavalier," recently landed.

The "Cavalier" was on her way from London to London, making a forced landing off Long Island when a slight storm from Bermuda on January 21, and three of the passengers were killed.

When the plane hit the water the passengers rushed from the cabin and clinging to a ring of lifebuoys, they were in the water and the steward was there they were rescued by an oil cutter.

Thinking of the death of Robert Gibson, the steward, the report says that the steward was so overcome by the loss of his reason that he became very restless and excited, swimming away from the group in the water and waving his energy.

"I never properly called him back," Gibson, on one of his excursions from the group, he started shouting the order furiously with his hands and feet. He was hauled back and held by several crew members and Mr. Watson.

"Almost as he became delirious and delirious. After attempts to revive him by massaging had failed, he was let die and sank."

It is stated that the steward was an Irishman living in Bermuda. He had announced his intention of going to New York.

It is also stated that the steward was a very good swimmer and that he was able to keep afloat for a long time.

It is also stated that the steward was a very good swimmer and that he was able to keep afloat for a long time.

HUGGY ADMISSION CHARGES

To the Sports Editor, E.A.S.—I shall be gratified if you will publish my views on the proposed admission charges for the Rugby football matches in the Nairobi District. It appears that the Rugby Association have to pay a shilling per head for the privilege of using any of your readers who should contribute estimates on this question.

The Rugby Association make a charge for spectators watching the ordinary league games, and propose to make the same charge for the various leagues without having to give the spectators the right to purchase the same in the ordinary way. It is not clear why they should be so treated. It would be well to consider this question in the light of the fact that the Rugby Association are not a charitable organization, and are not subject to the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act, 1890.

Yours etc,
J. F. FIRTH.

Nairobi, April 3, 1932.

(Note.—In connection with the above it should be pointed out that admission charges for field games are not levied in the Nairobi District. Native Football Associations make a charge for spectators watching the ordinary league games, and propose to make the same charge for the various leagues without having to give the spectators the right to purchase the same in the ordinary way. It is not clear why they should be so treated. It would be well to consider this question in the light of the fact that the Rugby Association are not a charitable organization, and are not subject to the provisions of the Charitable Trusts Act, 1890.)

These Stories Made News

(From the London Correspondent of the "East African Standard")

Twenty-three years after being left abandoned in the State of Maine, a young man, Robert D. Knight, had a search of the State records, and found that he was a young man. He was in the State of Maine in 1899, and was abandoned in the State of Maine in 1899.

Twenty-two years ago, a man walked into a post office in the U.S.A. to buy a new 24 cent United States postage stamp, and on noticing that the impression of the certificate was upside down he bought 100 of the stamps for the sum of $2.40. He was a dealer for $4,500 and one of the top men in the U.S.A. at the time.

Lucie Fyner (Mrs. Charles Shepherd), star of the Broadway musical "The Sign of the Cross" in London, was in the U.S.A. to give a performance of the play at the Grand Theatre, New York, on April 1, 1932. She was to earn $250 a week.

Arrest in Eye

A five-year-old child, Ethel Burdett, was arrested in the town of New Haven, East View, Maryland, on April 1, 1932. She was found with a quantity of stolen goods.

Head Ringer

Traffic was held up for five minutes on the main London road, at Bentley Village, near Abingdon, when a driver of a motor car, who was driving a motor car, was arrested on the spot.

Speaking at the 50th annual meeting of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, at Edinburgh, Dr. A. M. Kirkman, M.P., said that the Government should take steps to prevent the use of animals in the circus.

ITALIAN PLAN AGAINST THE ANTI-AGGRESSION PACT?

Possible Reason For Sending Troops To Albania

BALKAN ATTITUDE

THE VIEW IS EXPRESSED IN LONDON THAT ITALY MAY BE PLANNING THE MILITARY OCCUPATION OF ALBANIA AS A REPLY TO THE ATTEMPT BY RUMANIA TO BRING GREECE AND YUGOSLAVIA INTO THE SCOPE OF THE PROPOSED ANTI-AGGRESSION FRONT.

It is thought that Italy may in this way also wish to bring pressure to bear on Greece and Yugoslavia to isolate friendship with the principal Axis Powers.

London, April 5. The statement issued in Vienna yesterday that Albania would receive an ultimatum in a few days to join the anti-aggression pact was met by an announcement from the Italian Government that it was in favour of Italy to the effect that the Italian Government would not discuss any ultimatum against Albanian freedom or integrity.

The statement added that the report that Albania was to be invited to join the anti-aggression pact was not a precedent. It was stated that the only matter at the moment before the anti-aggression pact was to prepare for a further development of the anti-aggression pact. It was stated that the Italian Government was in favour of the anti-aggression pact. It was stated that the Italian Government was in favour of the anti-aggression pact. It was stated that the Italian Government was in favour of the anti-aggression pact.

TRAGIC SEQUEL TO DEATH OF A KING

British Consul At Mosul Murdered By A Mob

Believing a story by agitators that King Ghazi of Iraq had been murdered by the English, a crowd of people at Mosul stormed the British Consulate and murdered the British Consul.

Baghdad, April 5. The remains of King Ghazi were laid to rest in the Royal Mausoleum here today.

The King was buried beside his father, the late King Faisal. In the funeral procession were representatives of the Government, the Army and the Diplomatic Corps.

A crowd of people, collected to witness the funeral, believed that the King had been killed by the English.

A mob thorough of the British Consulate and murdered the British Consul who was accompanied by the British Consulate.

This morning's trial of the British Consul was held at Mosul last October. The Iraqi Prime Minister had expressed his Government's sorrow at the occurrence and Mr. Chamberlain had expressed his sorrow at the death of King Ghazi.

The Times leader says that King Ghazi's death was a tragedy for the British people. It was a tragedy for the British people because it was a tragedy for the British people.

TANGANYIKA NATIVE COFFEE

1,960 Tons were Harvested In 1938-39 Season

Following is the Kilimanjaro Native Cooperative Union, Ltd.'s review of the Coffee Season, 1938-39 and prospects for the season 1938-39.

The coffee crop was harvested during the months September, 1938 to February 1939, and totaled 1,960 tons of parchment coffee. The total crop was sold for public auction in the Office of Auctioneers at the Government Buildings, Nairobi, on the 27th and 28th of February, 1939.

Part of the crop (1,476 tons) was sold in government form and part (484 tons) was sold in cleared form. Outturn rates for 75 per cent. coffee were 20/- per cwt. for the first 500 tons, 18/- per cwt. for the next 500 tons, and 17/- per cwt. for the remaining cleared coffee. The total cleared coffee was 484 tons, valued at 10,752/-, or 22/- 4/- per cwt.

Prices for parchment coffee, free on rail, Nairobi, varied between 18/-, 20/- per cwt. at the commencement of September, 1938, to 20/- 5/- in January.

The first sale of clean coffee was not held until the 22nd of February, when the following prices were recorded:

Grade A, Shs. 51/75 per cwt., Grade B, Shs. 48/- per cwt., Grade C, Shs. 45/- per cwt., Grade D, Shs. 42/- per cwt., Grade E, Shs. 40/- per cwt.

The average price on Kilimanjaro Coffee Works, and worth out of the crop, was 20/- per cwt. for the whole crop of 1,960 tons, or 39,800/-, or 20/- per cwt. for the whole crop, free on rail, Nairobi.

Prospect for 1938-39 Season.
It is estimated that there are 75,000 acres of coffee on Kilimanjaro owned by members of the K.N.C.U., of which 4,100 acres are under cultivation. About half of the 75,000 acres of bearing coffee was planted during 1934 and 1935, and will not reach full maturity for several years to come.

It is reported that the annual crop will reach 3,000 tons during the next few years, based on an average yield of 4 cwt. per acre, which is now being attained by most of the plantations.

The preliminary estimate for the crop for the coming season is 2,250 tons. The preliminary estimate for the crop for the coming season is 2,250 tons. The preliminary estimate for the crop for the coming season is 2,250 tons.

KORU'S DROUGHT BREAKS

"The second drought has ended at last. On March 30 an inch of rain fell and this has been followed up with an average daily fall of half an inch.

A great deal of the early coffee has failed to develop but later harvestings are expected to respond to some extent.

A HAPPY FAMILY

They are happy because they are healthy. But it wasn't always so. Not so long ago father came home from his work day after day tired and sad. Mother suffered from headaches and nervous pains. And the children had constant trouble with their teeth; they were weakly and peevish—because they were outgrowing their strength.

Now wouldn't it be a happy family anyhow in the land—sooner than doctor prescribed a short course of Kalmex. Kalmex supplies the vital mineral salts they need. It builds strength. It gives them energy. It builds and strengthens their health and strength in an amazingly short time.

Non-pregnant women who are suffering from weakness and nervous pains, and the children who are outgrowing their strength, should take a short course of Kalmex. Child Labour—And Archdeacon Owen

The East African Standard does not propose, after this week, to continue the correspondence with the Rev. Archdeacon Owen. But the lively interchange of views to which the subject has given rise is deserving of some comment. The correspondence holds lessons for many people interested in the social, moral, economic and psychological aspects of the employment of African children; particularly in our opinion it holds at least one valuable lesson for Archdeacon Owen (which he will be well advised to learn). The two articles which were published by him in the East African Standard immediately after his return to Kenya were circulated in Kenya and read out to us at the time, for publication in Britain. He yielded to the propaganda yielded wisely, we believe—that he should publish in Kenya his already prepared views on the subject. It was an interesting and provocative contribution, though his argument for family control especially in the case of the European continent, we think, on the assumption that the conditions of tribal life in the Kenya Colony are any the less nearer to perfection to be preferable to the conditions in which children would live if they went out to work on European plantations. We do not believe that it is possible for the Archdeacon Owen, or anybody else with intimate knowledge of the conditions of African life in Kenya, to overestimate the effect of the social, moral, psychological and economic conditions which surround the life of the child in the Kenya Colony. It is not possible to see anywhere near to the standards which are really desirable for the majority of cases are uneducational, their standards of health and hygiene are deplorably low, their knowledge of health measures is limited and many of the surviving tribal customs and sanctions are so far removed from Christian ideals that they can not really be accepted as an influence for good on immature African minds. These conditions are not, as the Archdeacon says, many people know, but they have a long way to go before they are comparable with the standards which European people desire for their own children. We do not wish of their standards, but we believe that the standards which European people desire for their own children are, in fact, far above those to which a child would be accustomed in a native hut. It should be made clear again, that in the view of the East African Standard, the employment of very young children is indefensible, except under the most favourable conditions and for short seasons of the year during which, as in older countries, the parents or the parents in light agricultural work. We believe that in principle Archdeacon Owen is correct in contending that young children should not be removed far from their parents during the periods. And we are certainly opposed to the system which has grown up in terms of employing children for domestic labour in African and Asian houses where conditions are the reverse of satisfactory. These are matters subjected to the strict Government control and we hope that as a result of the discussion

Another Hint To The Homeward-Bound!

Another child has a Coast holiday guaranteed this year through the generosity of a donor to the Children's Camp Fund.

The easiest thing to remember about the Appeal at the end of the six weeks since it was launched is that Five Pounds will give one child a happy holiday.

It is really surprising and gratifying to find how many Five Pounds contributions have figured in the last year.

But, of course, there are people who want to help the children and cannot afford that sum. To them we would say that the odd pound note is a very welcome addition to the Fund.

Last week we expressed the hope that some of the many people going home, with substantial letters of credit to spend their money on their own holiday, would remember the circumstances of little children here in Kenya who could only hope at the best, for an assisted fortnight at the Coast.

But the train leaves still off to the Coast with happy people to join ships at Mombasa—and very few have spared a moment's thought, and a few shillings, for the children.

The following approximate population figures are given for the Administration—

Europeans 13,200; Coloured 1,245; Arab 8,571; others 108,228.

The average density of the population is 10 persons to the acre, the figure being 20 persons to the acre in the highlands.

There was a marked increase in the number of persons to the acre in the highlands, especially in the area of the Rift Valley.

MORE ON ADMISSION FEES

The Sports Editor, E. A. Standard Sir—Your notice in my letter of the 1st of April is received. I am sorry to hear of the increase in Rugby admission charges, as I feel of late that it could not possibly hold water.

In the first place you appear to have missed the main point of my letter in that I particularly stressed ordinary league games. Nowhere did I say that the Rugby Association charge for admission to representative fixtures and the Championship charge for admission to representative fixtures respectively, and I am quite sure that you are well acquainted with both the Eboracshire and the Eastern Rugby Union. You further state that the "open" fixtures both Rugby and Soccer football are very high in comparison with a number of other games. If by other games you mean hockey and tennis—the other two I mentioned in my first letter—I fear that I cannot agree with you.

The Authorities of both Association and Rugby football ordinarily spend about Shs. 100/- each year on new balls, while the Hockey Association spend about Shs. 200/- and the tennis authorities including as much as Shs. 1,000 for the same purpose.

All the controlling bodies of the sports mentioned charge spectators at matches where large costs are incurred, and this fact bears out my contention that the football authorities should not make any charge for spectators at the ordinary league games.

Yours truly,
J. F. FIFTH
Nairobi, April 5

(There is nothing in it to the effect that the Rugby authorities are to be more exacting in their charges than the other sports.)

Not only CLEANS but PRESERVES your teeth

Your teeth must be protected from harmful germs if they are to resist decay. That is why Dentists advise the twice-a-day use of KOLYNIOS—it not only keeps teeth white and attractive, but at the same time preserves them in a wonderfully healthy condition. Use only a very little KOLYNIOS at a time, preferably on a dry brush. Get a tube from your Chemist or Store today. Price 1/6B per tube.
