LAUNCHING OF A NEW LINER RECALLS PAST HISTORY

Opening-up of East African territories

THE recent launching of the British liner St. William offers an opportunity for Sir William Currie, Chairman of the company, to recall the history of the opening-up of East Africa for the benefit of the part played in his development by Sir William Mackinnon, who founded the Calcutta and Burma Steam Navigation Company, forerunner of the B. Company.

Sir William stated that in four years time they would be celebrating the centenary of the formation of the Calcutta and Burma Company and he would like to see the permission of his listeners to mark back to the year 1850 when Sir William Mackinnon, with his far-seeing vision, inaugurated a service between Bombay and East Africa, calling at Aden and Zanzibar.

"St. William" he said, "is a direct service to the East African coast and will be a link between the East and the West."

Sultan's offer

The transportation service in Aden was inaugurated last week and the liner St. William will be the first to call at Aden to receive mail and passengers from the East and West.

There was once an Irish farmer whose method of weighing a pig was to put the pig on one end of a plank and a big stone on the other, move the plank until they balanced — and then guess the weight of the stone.

This method has the virtue of simplicity, but it is doubtful whether it would pass the Weights and Measures Act, as all Avery Weighing Equipment does before sale. Safer, certainly, to put your trust in an Avery.

WHO'S WHO OF WOMAN'S HOUR

As Sanders talks about the people who run the popular B.B.C. women's programmes.

When I was asked to write about the people who run the popular B.B.C. women's programmes, I was a bit puzzled. I had never before written about the people who run the programmes, but I was sure I could do it. I had a good idea of the people who run the programmes, but I was not sure I could write about them. I was sure I could do it, but I was not sure I could write about them.

A CONFESSE

When I was asked to write about the people who run the popular B.B.C. women's programmes, I was a bit puzzled. I had never before written about the people who run the programmes, but I was sure I could do it. I had a good idea of the people who run the programmes, but I was not sure I could write about them. I was sure I could do it, but I was not sure I could write about them.

Male help

I had never before written about the people who run the programmes, but I was sure I could do it. I had a good idea of the people who run the programmes, but I was not sure I could write about them. I was sure I could do it, but I was not sure I could write about them.

They top the fashion poll

A RECENT poll by the New York Daily Mail has shown that the most popular fashion designers in the world are those who have designed the most popular dresses.

When I was asked to write about the people who run the popular B.B.C. women's programmes, I was a bit puzzled. I had never before written about the people who run the programmes, but I was sure I could do it. I had a good idea of the people who run the programmes, but I was not sure I could write about them. The Rendille: a fine-featured and pleasant race

Poachable by nature, the Rendille, frontier people of whom MERRELL DALTON writes in his fourth article on tribes of the N.F.D., are skilful at effacing themselves from trouble.

Slim and statuesque, they are a pleasant race and the women, especially those with short frizzy hair, have a distinct resemblance to the Romans.

The Rendille, whose country adjoins that of the Barotsi and Samburu, are a pleasant, fine-featured race who claim kinship with the Semites of Babylonia on the borders of Italian Somaliland and Abyssinia.

It is details that reveal their nature and traits, and the names of many of their possessions and the manner of their living, which indicate the tribes to which they belong.

They are a people of nomads, and may be described as a people of nomads, and may be described as a people of nomads.

Sacred lake

The Rendille, who are a nomadic people, have a sacred lake which is the center of their life.

They are a people of nomads, and may be described as a people of nomads.

TOOLS TO MOVE MOUNTAINS by Leonard Rue

PAITH, it has been said, can move mountains; but if men want to move earth from one place to another, they need tools to do the job.

And nowadays they are shown through hilly country they try to do it by moving the hills rather than by moving the earth.

Vital importance

The spread of industry and civilization all over the world is made possible by what are called modern tools.

There were paleolithic, middle and modern stone tools, and all sorts of armaments that are still being used in some parts of the world.

State may control water in South Africa

State control of water in South Africa is being considered in order to ensure the greatest possible utilization of water resources and equitable division between agriculture and industry, says the South African Minister of Lands, Mr. G. Quthuba, who will be officially opening the Lange Dam at Fort Murray in the Transvaal.

The Minister said that the Lange Dam, which is the largest dam in the world, will provide water for irrigation and for the power station. He said that the State would control the water in the Lange Dam and the water in the other dams in the Transvaal.

Spain

Spain is the country and district most in need of agricultural machinery, says the South African Minister of Lands, Mr. G. Quthuba, who will be officially opening the Lange Dam at Fort Murray in the Transvaal.

The Minister said that the Lange Dam, which is the largest dam in the world, will provide water for irrigation and for the power station. He said that the State would control the water in the Lange Dam and the water in the other dams in the Transvaal.

THE CHINA ISSUE

The people of the five continents of the world will be aware with great interest of the present position in the United States of the 100 million Chinese who the United Nations should adopt towards China.

There is no doubt that many of the members of the United States are in a position to be surprised by the view of the Middle East, as no one disposed to follow a policy of Communism. Peking as the position of a Chinese Communist is a difficult enough quite impossible.

There is little doubt that the United States and most of the nations of South America do not see it that way. They have been led to believe that the Chinese are not only a better than a policy of Communism.

Nothing with the Communists. Peking better than this country. The United States and most of the nations of South America do not see it that way.

HOLLIES AND COMPTON SPIN M.C.C. TO VICTORY

The third, first-class win for tourists

SOME few are bowing by Eric Hollies, who had an innings of 100 in four weeks' time, and Denis Compton, following a shrewd declaration, enabled M.C.C. to gain their fourth win of the tour when they beat a Combined XI by two wickets at Lancaster, Lancaster, yesterday.

Compton and early innings batsmen appeared to have done the trick, although it had been covered.

Compton declared the M.C.C. side innings at the overcast total of 202 for seven wickets. The tourists had to follow on and were bowled out for 107. The M.C.C. side then won the match by 95 runs.

Trouble

Trouble began for the Combined XI when Ian Armstrong, the Australian, was bowled out in the first innings. The tourists had to follow on and were bowled out for 107. The M.C.C. side then won the match by 95 runs.

WORLD - FAMOUS NUFFIELD RANGE

Traditional British craftsmanship is evident in every feature of these noteworthy Nuffield products. Each vehicle has been designed and powered for the haulage work they have been planned to undertake, and constructed for long and arduous service. Load space, too, has been devised for accessibility and scientific weight distribution. Nuffield-built transportation cannot fail to satisfy owners who keep a close check on operation costs.

Will Britain Have Another Coalition Government?

Yesterday Parliament reassembled for what may be one of the most critical sessions in its history both on the domestic and international fronts.

It is probable that if the Labour Government is able to secure a majority in the House of Commons, it will be able to carry out its programme of reconstruction and social reform.

Into a huddle
The Labour Government is now in a huddle, and the future of the coalition government is uncertain.

Wanted: a leader
The Labour Government needs a strong leader to carry out its programme of reconstruction and social reform.

Party betrayal?

AMERICAN DELEGATE EXAMINES CHINA'S ATTITUDE TO CEASE-FIRE PROPOSAL

Addresses to Political Committee

Washington, Jan. 23.—The full text of a statement made on Thursday by Charles R. Austin, United States delegate to the General Assembly Political Committee, was published in the United States House of Representatives today.

Mr. Austin said the Chinese Government's attitude toward the United Nations cease-fire proposal was "most revealing."

He said the Chinese Government's attitude toward the United Nations cease-fire proposal was "most revealing."

Murders not connected with gang

Police in investigating the murders of three Americans in Shanghai were convinced that the slayings were not connected with the activities of the Chinese Communist Party.

The police said the slayings were the work of a gang of Chinese criminals who were active in the city.

FIVE SENT TO PRISON IN UNLAWFUL OATHS CASE

Lawyer tells of interview with 'agent'

MR. MERVYN MORGAN, the British lawyer who was yesterday a witness at the continued preliminary hearing in the case in which Louis Attia is charged with the slaying of a woman, told today that he had obtained some information from a source in the North Korean zone.

Mr. Morgan said that the source had told him that the North Korean Government was planning to send a large number of its citizens to the United States.

Grave decision

The Chinese Government's attitude toward the United Nations cease-fire proposal was "most revealing," said the American delegate.
